* Southern Conference Game

☞ NOTING THE PALADINS...After dropping its season opener 78-72 to James Madison in Harrisonburg, Va., on Nov. 22, Furman has rebounded with wins over a pair of NCAA Division III foes to improve to 2-1 on the season. Last Monday freshman guard Eric Webb came off the bench to score a game high 17 points (5x9 FGs, 4x8 3PGs, 3x4FTs) to pace the Paladins to a 77-53 win over Southern Wesleyan. On Wednesday another freshman, forward Quan Prowell, tallied a game high 16 points (6x11 FGs, 2x2 3PGs, 2x2 FTs) to lead the Paladins to an easy 74-49 victory over Greensboro College. Through three games, 42.6 percent of Furman's offense has come from its freshman class, which also currently boasts three of the Paladins' top four scorers: Eric Webb (11.7 ppg), Quan Prowell (10.3 ppg), and wing guard Robby Bostain (9.0 ppg). Webb also tops Furman in 3-point shooting (42.1 percent, 8x19). Of the 13 active players in Furman's program, nine count a year or less of collegiate experience, and five are freshmen. Minnesota enters Sunday's clash with a 1-1 season mark, having been idle for 11 days after dropping a 66-54 decision to Utah in the second round of the Preseason NIT in Salt Lake City. The Gophers opened the 2003-04 season with a 78-67 triumph at home over Missouri-Kansas City. Minnesota owns a 2-1 series lead over Furman and claimed the last meeting with a 71-56 victory at Williams Arena on Dec. 23, 1999, behind Terrance Simmons' 14-point performance. Karim Souchu led the Paladins in that contest with a game high 17 points, but Furman shot just 31.3 percent from the field (21x67) in the contest and only 3-of-18 from 3-point range (16.7 percent). Minnesota is the first of two Big Ten opponents Furman will face in 2003-04. The Paladins are scheduled to play Ohio State on Dec. 17 in Columbus. Furman's 68-60 setback at Wisconsin early in the 2001-02 season marked the Paladins' last tangle with a Big Ten opponent. The Paladins are 2-11 all-time (.154) and have dropped nine consecutive games to Big Ten opponents: 1-1 vs. Illinois; 1-2 vs. Minnesota, 0-1 vs. Indiana; 0-1 vs. Iowa; 0-1 vs. Purdue; 0-2 vs. Northwestern; 0-3 vs. Michigan State. Furman's last victory over a Big Ten schools was a 75-73 verdict over Illinois on Dec. 11, 1975. The Furman program counts several Minnesota connections, including head coach Larry Davis, who served as an assistant coach for the Golden Gophers for three years (1995-97) before coming to Furman. Assistant coach Niko Medved, now in his fifth season with the Paladins program, graduated from Roseville (Minn.) High School and later earned both bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Minnesota in the late 1990s. Paladin freshman guard Eric Webb, meanwhile, is a product of Grand Rapids, Minn., where he was a two-time all-state selection and finalist for Minnesota's Mr. Basketball at Grand Rapids High School a year ago after averaging 28.8 points, 10.0 assists, and 5.0 steals per game. Furman made another connection to Minnesota earlier this month when it announced the signing of 6-foot-2 wing guard Jadee Jones from Apple Valley, Minn. As a junior at DeLaSalle (Minn.) High School, he averaged 18.0 ppg, shot 45.0 percent from 3-point range, and earned all-state honors. This year he is attending Hopkins High School in Minneapolis. Furman raced to a 41-14 halftime lead and was never seriously threatened in Wednesday's 74-49 win over Greensboro College. The Pride's 14 points marked the lowest output in a first half by an opponent since the Paladins began play in Timmons Arena in 1997. All 13 Paladins in uniform saw action against Greensboro. Redshirt freshman wing guard Robby Bostain has shown solid all-around play in the early going, contributing 9.0 points and 6.0 rebounds per game while also totaling a team leading 13 assists and eight steals and only four turnovers (+3.25 assist/turnover ratio) in 75 minutes of action. Senior forward Maleye Ndoye's career high 32-point performance in the Paladins' season opening loss at James Madison doubled his previous career high of 16 registered last year in an 83-29 rout of Methodist. Over the summer Ndoye helped his native Senegal to a fourth place finish in the African Championships, including a 27-point performance in a 92-77 win over Morocco. Last year's 8-8 Southern Conference South Division mark represented the program's first .500 conference campaign since the 1991-92 season (9-5) and first non-losing league record since the SoCon went to divisional play in 1994-95. Furman's biggest win a year ago was an 84-71 triumph over eventual league tournament champion East Tennessee State in Johnson City. Furman was a consensus preseason No. 5 pick in separate polls by league head coaches and media in the six-team south division. The Paladins lost their top four scorers and three leading rebounders from a year ago, including forward Karim Souchu (19.5 ppg/4.5 rpg), who completed his career with 2,014 points, good for fourth place on Furman's all-time scoring chart. Furman also graduated point guard Guilherme Da Luz (11.4 ppg/4.2 rpg/149 assists), who last year became the first player in SoCon history to tally 1,000 points (1,253), 600 assists (668), 500 rebounds (512), and 200 steals (205). In addition, the Paladins graduated forward Kenny Zeigler (8.3 ppg/7.8 rpg). This year Furman will celebrate the 50th anniversary of Paladin All-American Frank Selvy's senior season with ceremonies at the Paladins' home game versus The Citadel (Feb. 21). A native of Corbin, Ky., who currently lives just outside Greenville, Selvy led the nation in scoring (41.7 ppg), tallied an NCAA record 100 points in a 149-95 win over Newberry College on Feb. 13, 1954 at Greenville's Textile Hall, and was named NCAA Player-of-the-Year in 1954 after helping Furman to a 21-6 season that featured wins over South Carolina, Clemson, Virginia Tech, Georgia Tech, and Manhattan, among others. The NBA's No. 1 Draft pick in 1954 by the Baltimore Bullets, he played nine seasons in the NBA, including five with the Los Angeles Lakers, where he played alongside future Hall-of-Famers Jerry West and Elgin Baylor. He still holds five NCAA records, 10 Southern Conference standards, and 17 school records, and is a member of both the Furman and South Carolina Athletic Halls of Fame. His jersey No. 28 is one of only four retired numbers in Furman basketball history. Selvy was also recently ranked (No. 50) by Street & Smith's Magazine among the 100 greatest players in college basketball history.
