* Southern Conference Game

NOTING THE PALADINS...Furman continues its five-game road trip on Saturday when it travels to Cedar Falls, Iowa, to take on the Northern Iowa Panthers. The game will mark the first meeting between the Paladins and Panthers on the hardwood. Furman heads into the contest having dropped its last two games, including an 91-84 overtime loss at Minnesota on Nov. 30 and a 73-65 setback at UNC Greensboro on Wednesday in the Paladins' Southern Conference season opener. Northern Iowa comes into Saturday's contest with a 2-2 record, having claimed a 75-72 home decision over Louisiana Tech on Tuesday. The Panthers opened the season at home with an 83-59 triumph over Chicago State before dropping a pair of games to Butler (56-54) and Iowa State (79-76), the latter of which came on the road. Northern Iowa is paced by senior forward Matt Schneiderman (16.8 ppg, 10x22 3PPG), who hit a three-pointer at the buzzer in the win over Louisiana Tech. Sophomore guard Ben Jacobson (15.5 ppg, 9x15 3PPG) and senior forward David Gruber (12.0 ppg) are two other top Panther performers. Northern Iowa is shooting 42.0 percent from three-point range on the season (34x81). Two key stretches proved decisive in Furman's loss to UNC Greensboro on Wednesday. Leading 28-21 late in the first half, the Paladins surrendered a 13-2 run to the Spartans over the final four minutes to fall behind 34-30 at intermission. In the second half, Furman trailed 44-43 before UNCG's Ray Bristow keyed a 16-7 spurt with four consecutive three-pointers to give the Spartans a 60-50 lead. The Paladins cut the advantage to three at 66-63 with a Maleye Ndoye layup with 1:42 to go, but a Jay Joseph 3-pointer at the 1:21 juncture proved too much for Furman to overcome. The Paladins were paced by true freshman forward Quan Prowell, who converted 9-of-10 field goals en route to a game high 22 points and a season high seven rebounds in 26 minutes of action. Through five games he is averaging a solid 13.6 ppg and is shooting 63.6 percent from the field (28x44), the sixth best mark in the Southern Conference. He's also connected on 3-of-4 three-point attempts (75.0%) and 9-of-12 free throw attempts (75.0%). After scoring four points versus James Madison in the season opener, Prowell has averaged 16.0 ppg in the Paladins' last four contests. Senior forward Maleye Ndoye followed up last Sunday's career high tying 32-point performance versus Minnesota (14x21 FGs) with a 16-point outing versus UNC Greensboro. He opened the season with a career high 32-point performance in the Paladins' 78-72 loss at James Madison on Nov. 22. Through five games he is averaging 20.6 ppg — the best mark in the Southern Conference. Last year he averaged 5.2 ppg. This past summer Ndoye helped his native Senegal to a fourth place finish in the African Championships, including a 27-point performance in a 92-77 win over Morocco. Through five games, 41.9 percent of Furman's offense has come from its freshman class, which also currently boasts two of the Paladins' top three scorers: Quan Prowell (13.6 ppg) and Eric Webb (10.4 ppg). Of the 13 active players in Furman's program, nine count a year or less of collegiate experience, and five are freshmen. Sophomore guard Tony Carter turned in a very productive game against Minnesota, scoring eight points and totaling career high marks in assists (9) and steals (5) with only one turnover in 38 minutes of action. He currently leads Furman in assists (24) and steals (15). Senior center Marijan Pojatina's 85 blocks rank him sixth on Furman's career charts, which only go back to the 1977-78 season. Furman announced the signing of 6-foot-2 wing guard Jadee Jones from Apple Valley, Minn., in November. As a junior at DeLaSalle (Minn.) High School, he averaged 18.0 ppg, shot 45.0 percent from three-point range, and earned all-state honors. This year he is attending Hopkins High School in Minneapolis. Last year's 8-8 Southern Conference South Division mark represented the program's first .500 conference campaign since the 1991-92 season (9-5) and first non-losing league record since the SoCon went to divisional play in 1994-95. Furman's biggest win a year ago was an 84-71 triumph over eventual league tournament champion East Tennessee State in Johnson City. Furman was a consensus preseason No. 5 pick in separate polls by league head coaches and media in the six-team south division. The Paladins lost their top four scorers and three leading rebounders from a year ago, including forward Karim Souchu (19.5 ppg/4.5 rpg), who completed his career with 2,014 points, good for fourth place on Furman's all-time scoring chart. Furman also graduated point guard Guilherme Da Luz (11.4 ppg/4.2 rpg/149 assists), who last year became the first player in SoCon history to tally 1,000 points (1,253), 600 assists (668), 500 rebounds (512), and 200 steals (205). In addition, the Paladins graduated forward Kenny Zeigler (8.3 ppg/7.8 rpg). This year Furman will celebrate the 50th anniversary of Paladin All-American Frank Selvy's senior season with ceremonies at the Paladins' home game versus The Citadel (Feb. 21). A native of Corbin, Ky., who currently lives just outside Greenville, Selvy led the nation in scoring (41.7 ppg), tallied an NCAA record 100 points in a 149-95 win over Newberry College on Feb. 13, 1954 at Greenville's Textile Hall, and was named NCAA Player-of-the-Year in 1954 after helping Furman to a 21-6 season that featured wins over South Carolina, Clemson, Virginia Tech, Georgia Tech, and Manhattan, among others. The NBA's No. 1 Draft pick in 1954 by the Baltimore Bullets, he played nine seasons in the NBA, including five with the Los Angeles Lakers, where he played alongside future Hall-of-Famers Jerry West and Elgin Baylor. He still holds five NCAA records, 10 Southern Conference standards, and 17 school records, and is a member of both the Furman and South Carolina Athletic Halls of Fame. His jersey No. 28 is one of only four retired numbers in Furman basketball history. Selvy was also recently ranked (No. 50) by Street & Smith's Magazine among the 100 greatest players in college basketball history.
