FURMAN'S ORLANDO RUFF INVITED TO NFL COMBINE

GREENVILLE — Furman University senior linebacker Orlando Ruff has received an invitation to take part in the National Football League's Invitational Camp in February, it was announced today.

Ruff, who in December participated in the annual Blue/Gray All-Star Game and who later this month will play in the Hula Bowl in Honolulu, Hawaii, is scheduled to attend the NFL Invitational Camp from Feb. 18-22 in Indianapolis, Ind.

A Winnsboro, S.C., native and 1998 first team All-America selection, Ruff totaled 97 tackles this past season and finished his career as Furman's fourth all-time leading tackler with 488 stops.
