THE GAME

Saturday's Furman-Newberry game marks the second of three straight home night games for Furman, which opened the 2000 season with a 16-3 win over Elon last Saturday at Paladin Stadium. Furman will also take on William & Mary on Sept. 16 in Greenville before playing its first road game on Sept. 23 at VMI. Newberry represents Furman's first NCAA Division II opponent since 1993 when Wofford tied Furman 14-14.

PROMOTIONS

Saturday's Furman-Newberry contest will highlight Greenville Hospital System and Red Ribbon/Tobacco Free Coalition Night at Paladin Stadium, and will feature a fireworks show sponsored by Thrifty Car Rental following the game.

THE SERIES

In a series that started in 1913 with a 16-7 Newberry win in a contest played in Union, S.C., Furman holds a commanding 22-5 series advantage. The Paladins and Indians have met only three times since 1967, and the last clash came in 1988 when Furman rolled to a 42-0 victory on the way to a 13-2 record and NCAA I-AA national championship. Newberry's last win over Furman came in 1985 when Eddie Taylor booted a 57-yard field goal in the final seconds to lift the Indians to a dramatic 24-21 upset of the Paladins, who went on to claim the Southern Conference championship and finish as national runner-up.

FURMAN-NEWBERRY LAST MEETING

GREENVILLE (Sept. 24, 1988) -- Sporting a punishing ground game that netted 319 yards and six touchdowns, the Furman Paladins ran all over the visiting Newberry Indians 42-0 before 15,180 fans at Paladin Stadium.

Paced by fullback Kennet Goldsmith's 78 yards, tailback Dwight Sterling's 74 yards and two touchdowns, and tailback Bobby Daugherty's 67 yards and two scores, Furman displayed impressive rushing balance that would help take it to Southern Conference and NCAA I-AA national championships.

Furman's defense was no less spectacular in notching its third shutout of the season and fourth straight home blanking. Keyed by rush end Kelly Fletcher's then-school record five quarterback sacks, the Paladins limited Newberry to 128 total yards and only 1.8 yards per snap.

After building a 21-0 halftime lead on the strength of a pair of 1-yard scoring runs by Dwight Sterling, Furman put the game away with three touchdowns in a fourth quarter that saw play suspended for 15 minutes due to lightning, heavy rains, and wind.

FURMAN LAST TIME OUT

GREENVILLE (Sept. 2, 2000) -- Freshman placekicker Danny Marshall booted three field goals and tailback Louis Ivory rushed for 182

yards and a touchdown to lift nationally ninth-ranked Furman to a 16-3 win over Elon in the season opener for both teams.

Furman, which lost the 1999 season opener to the Phoenix, narrowly avoided a second straight defeat when strong safety Shelvis Smith recovered a fumble by Elon quarterback Derrick Moore at the Paladin 10-yard line with 1:26 left and Furman holding a tenuous 9-3 lead.

Furman scored the game's only touchdown on the next play when, following a 15-yard penalty of the Phoenix, Ivory took a handoff from quarterback Justin Hill and raced 75 yards for the score with 46 seconds left in the game.

Elon outgained Furman 325 to 236 in total offense, but the Phoenix suffered six turnovers, including four fumbles and two interceptions. Paladin linebacker Will Bouton led Furman's strong defensive effort with 13 tackles, two tackles-for-loss, an interception, and a fumble recovery which he returned for 18 yards.

Playing in his first collegiate contest, Marshall provided Furman with its first points of the game when he converted a 43-yard field goal early in the second quarter. He later added a 29-yard field goal with only 20 seconds left in the first half to make it 6-0.

Chris Lowery's 78-yard kickoff return to start the second half set up Marshall's third field goal, a 34-yarder, that gave the Paladins a 9-0 lead less than two minutes into the second half.

Elon answered with its only scoring drive of the game, moving 69 yards in 13 plays for a 27-yard field goal by Beau Wegmann with 6:40 to go in the third period. But the Phoenix failed to register points on its last five possessions, including four that ended inside Furman territory.

✓ THAT'S WHY THEY PLAY ON GRASS (AND NOT ON PAPER)... While the nationally ninth-ranked Furman Paladins should be the favorite in this Saturday's clash with Newberry, don't expect anybody wearing purple to take a victory over Newberry for granted. That's because in 1985, with arguably one of the greatest Furman teams of the modern era, the Paladins were shocked 24-21 by Newberry on a last second 57-yard field goal by the Indians' Eddie Taylor. The upset loss to Newberry was one of only two losses sustained by the Paladins in a season that saw Furman post a 12-2 record, claim a Southern Conference title, and finish as NCAA I-AA national runner-up. Making the defeat all the more remarkable is the fact that two weeks after the Newberry game Furman steamrolled N.C. State 42-20 in Raleigh. Memories of the '85 loss to Newberry will surely be recited this week by several members of Furman's current coaching staff, beginning with head coach Bobby Johnson, who was serving as the Paladins' defensive coordinator at the time. Ted Cain was also an assistant on the Furman staff in 1985, and current Paladin assistants Bobby Lamb, Clay Hendrix, and Julius Dixon were players on that '85 squad, although Lamb, the squad's starting quarterback that season, was injured and did not play in the game.

✓ GO FIGURE... Furman's 24-21 loss to Newberry in 1985 included a statistical oddity that, as far as records indicate, had never occurred before and has not happened since. That is the fact that three Paladins — Brian Jager (131), John Drye (123), and John Bagwell (119) — rushed for over 100 yards against the Indians in the '85 contest.

✓ FU VERSUS THE SAC 8... Furman has posted a 66-17-2 record (.788) through the years versus current members of the South Atlantic Conference. Saturday's clash with Newberry will be the first against a SAC 8 foe since the Paladins topped Presbyterian 43-7 in 1992.

FURMAN VERSUS THE SAC 8

School	Series	Last Meeting
Carson-Newman	4-1-1	1983 (52-7 W)
Lenoir-Rhyne	2-0	1974 (14-10 W)
Mars Hill	2-0	1985 (34-10 W)
Newberry	22-5	1988 (42-0 W)
Presbyterian	36-11-1	1992 (43-7 W)
Totals	66-17-2

✓ NOT SINCE 1990... Furman's four fumble recoveries in Saturday's 16-3 win over Elon were the most by the Paladins since the 1990 season when Furman recovered four fumbles in a 63-7 win over Presbyterian. Elon's six total turnovers (4 fumbles, 2 interceptions) were the most by a Paladin opponent since Samford committed six miscues in a 38-24 Furman win during the 1998 season.

✓ PALADIN "D" SAVES THE GAME... Were it not for Furman's solid defense in Saturday's season opener against Elon, the Paladins would most certainly be 0-1 heading into Saturday's game against Newberry. With the Paladin offense struggling for most of the contest, Furman's defense came up big time and time again, limiting Elon to only three points and stopping the Phoenix on four drives deep in Paladin territory in the second half (three via turnovers and one on downs). Of many big plays recorded by Furman's defense in Saturday's game, none topped the one registered against the Phoenix in the game's waning seconds when, with Elon facing a third and two situation at the Furman 7, linebacker Marion Martin hit Phoenix quarterback Derrick Moore on an option keeper and forced a fumble which was recovered by Paladin strong safety Shelvis Smith at the 10-yard line with 1:26 left in the game. Martin's and Smith's late game heroics came after the Paladins fumbled away the football at its own 15-yard line with 2:26 remaining — that after the Paladin defense had stopped Elon at the Furman 17, where the Phoenix missed a 33-yard field goal. Earlier in the quarter the Paladin defense stopped Elon on downs at the Furman 24.

✓ BOUTON COMES UP BIG... Consensus All-Southern Conference and Sports Network Pre-Season All-America linebacker Will Bouton (Greenville, S.C.) validated his all-star credentials and headlined Furman's defense Saturday night in the Paladins' 16-3 win over Elon by totaling a game high 13 tackles, two tackles-for-loss, a fumble recovery, and an interception. The Paladin junior has now started in 24 straight games and totaled 254 tackles in a little over two seasons of action.

✓ MORE DEFENSIVE STALWARTS... In addition to the stellar play of linebacker Will Bouton, Furman received solid defensive performances from several players in Saturday's win over Elon, including those turned in by linebacker John Thrift (Hartwell, Ga.), strong safety Shelvis Smith (College Park, Ga.), cornerback Richie Jackson (Cincinnati, Ohio), cornerback Andre Stroman (Plantation, Fla.), and defensive tackle Ryan Spencer (Clover, S.C.). Thrift registered 12 tackles; Smith tallied seven stops, a tackle-for-loss, and a fumble recovery; Jackson garnered six tackles and a fumble recovery; Stroman totaled five tackles and a fumble recovery; and Spencer had four stops and a tackle-for-loss.

✓ A BIG LOSS... Furman's outstanding defensive effort in the 16-3 win over Elon on Saturday came at a price, and the tax was the loss of starting junior cornerback Rodney Johnson (Marion, N.C.) to a knee injury for the remainder of the season. Johnson, a two-year letterman who played as a true freshman in 1998 and started in every game a year ago, sustained torn anterior cruciate and medial collateral ligaments in his right knee following a short interception return early in the first quarter. According to head athletic trainer Brian Reese, Johnson will undergo surgery within the next two weeks and will seek a medical redshirt. He was replaced in the lineup by senior Andre Stroman, who stepped up with four tackles and a fumble recovery against the Phoenix.

✓ IVORY SHINES VERSUS ELON... Furman tailback Louis Ivory's 182-yard rushing performance in the Paladins' 16-3 win over Elon on Saturday represented his fourth straight 100-yard performance, the 10th 100-yard rushing performance of his career, and the second best rushing outing as a Paladin, trailing only the 202 yards he rang up against East Tennessee State in 1999 (48-21 win). Ivory's 75-yard touchdown run against the Phoenix was the longest of his career, eclipsing his previous best run of 59 yards against East Tennessee State in 1999. In rushing for 182 yards against Elon, Ivory personally accounted for 77.1 percent of Furman's total offense (236 yards) versus the Phoenix.

✓ LIKE THAT TREND... In rushing for over 100 yards in each of Furman's last four contests, Louis Ivory has upped his rushing yardage in each game, going from 107 yards in last year's 30-3 win over Wofford to last Saturday's 182 yards in the 16-3 win over Elon. During the four game span, he has racked up 81 carries for 560 yards (140.0 ypg/6.9 ypc) and three touchdowns. Extending it back a few more games, Ivory has topped the 100-yard plateau in six of Furman's last seven contests and has rushed for 940 yards (134.3 ypg/6.8 ypc) and six touchdowns during that stretch.

LOUIS IVORY'S LAST FOUR GAMES

Opponent	Result	Statistics
Wofford	30-3 W	20 att./107 yds./1 TD
Chattanooga	40-35 W	22 att./128 yds./1 TD
Massachusetts	23-30 L	19 att./143 yds./0 TD
Elon	16-3 W	20 att./182 yds./1 TD
Totals	3-1	81 att./560 yds./3 TD

✓ GENERAL MARSHALL... No, he's not General George Marshall, but after his three field goal performance in Saturday's 16-3 win over Elon true freshman Danny Marshall (Atlanta, Ga.), who beat out three other Paladin upperclassmen for the team's placekicking job, might earn a few salutes from his teammates and coaching staff. Appearing in his first game as a Paladin, Marshall accounted for 10 of the Paladins' 16 points by connecting on field goals covering 43, 29, and 34 yards, plus an extra point. The only freshman among Furman's 24 position starters, Marshall is the son of former Paladin defensive end Tommy Marshall (1974-76), who later served as an assistant coach on the Furman staff for eight years (1986-93), during which time the Paladins captured three Southern Conference titles and the 1988 NCAA I-AA national championship.

✓ MORE ON MARSHALL... In kicking three field goals in Saturday's win over Elon, Danny Marshall became the first Paladin to kick three field goals in a game since Jason Wells converted four against East Tennessee State (22-19 loss) in 1998. Marshall's first field goal, which covered 43 yards, was the longest by a Paladin since Jason Wells kicked a 47-yarder against Georgia Southern (45-17 loss) in 1998.

✓ NEW FACES... Furman's starting lineup in Saturday's 16-3 win over Elon featured several new faces, including sophomore right guard Trevor Kruger (Moultrie, Ga.), senior flanker Bryant Huguley (Valley, Ala.), junior strong safety Shelvis Smith (Atlanta, Ga.), and junior free safety Josh Cooper (Cincinnati, Ohio). Smith and Cooper, were under particular scrutiny as they were stepping in for graduated All-Southern Conference performers Walter Booth and John Keith. Smith responded with seven tackles, a tackle-for-loss, and a game saving fumble recovery, and Cooper totaled four tackles and tackle-for-loss.

✓ JUST WARMING UP... Since 1998, Furman quarterback Justin Hill (Greer, S.C.) has taken a couple of games to get into a high efficiency passing groove, and following his 2-for-10 (20 yards) passing worksheet in Saturday's 16-3 win over Elon, he may just be sticking to form as the comparison below indicates.

JUSTIN HILL STARTS VS. FINISHES (Since 1998)

✓ PALADINS REVERSE RECENT HISTORY IN SEASON OPENERS...Furman's 16-3 win over Elon on Saturday reversed the Paladins' recent string of season opening losses and represented only the program's second season opening win since 1993. Part of the reason for Furman's 2-5 slate in its last seven season inaugurals can be attributed to the opposition, as four of the losses have come to Clemson (1994, '96, & '98) and Georgia Tech (1995).

FURMAN IN LAST SEVEN SEASON OPENERS (2-5)

Year	Opponent	Score	Result
1994	@ Clemson	6-27	L
1995	@ Georgia Tech	7-51	L
1996	@ Clemson	3-19	L
1997	@ Samford	29-10	W
1998	@ Clemson	0-33	L
1999	ELON	22-24	L
2000	ELON	16-3	W

✓ UNDER THE LIGHTS...Furman's 2000 season opening win against Elon marked only the 10th night game in Paladin Stadium's 20-year, 120-game history. Opened in 1981, Paladin Stadium did not host a night game until the 1991 season when Furman knocked off Liberty 31-7 in the Paladins' home opener. In the 10 games under the lights of Paladin Stadium, Furman has posted a solid 8-2 record (.800) and enters the Newberry contest having captured five of the last six night games within its home confines. The Paladins' only two losses at night in Paladin Stadium came to William & Mary in 1994 (28-26) and Elon last year (24-22). Since assuming the head coaching reins in 1994, Bobby Johnson has directed the Paladins to a 6-2 record (.750) in home night contests, and his first career win as the Paladins' head coach was a 26-21 night verdict over South Carolina State in 1994. Furman is 92-27-1 (.771) overall in Paladin Stadium.

FURMAN IN PALADIN STADIUM NIGHT GAMES (8-2)

✓ SEVEN HOME GAMES IN 2000...Furman's

clash with Newberry this Saturday will mark the second of seven regular season home games for the Paladins this season, and second of four home contests in September following last Saturday's 16-3 win over Elon. Prior to this year, Furman has only played seven regular season home contests once since moving into Paladin Stadium, and that came in 1987 when the Paladins produced a 5-2 record. Furman played an all-time high nine home games in 1989 and went 8-1, but that run included three playoff contests.

✓ GETTING OUT OF THE GATE...Although Furman went scoreless (and shut out Elon) in the first quarter in Saturday's eventual 16-3 win over the Phoenix, the Paladins still have outscored the opposition 125-41 in the opening stanza over the past 13 games.

✓ PALADINS ALSO TOUGH IN FOURTH QUARTER...As it attempts to extend the first quarter efficiency it displayed a year ago, Furman will also try to maintain the fourth quarter dominance it demonstrated in 1999 when the Paladins outscored the opposition 112-35 in the final stanza. Counting the Paladins' seven fourth quarter points and the quarter shutout of Elon in Saturday's win, Furman's final period scoring differential is 119-35 over the last 13 games.

✓ IT'S JUSTIN TIME...Much of the optimism surrounding Furman's veteran offense this fall is due to the return of senior quarterback and team co-captain Justin Hill (Greer, S.C.). A second team All-Southern Conference pick in 1999, Hill played a major role in leading Furman to a 9-3 record, Southern Conference championship, and trip to the NCAA I-AA playoffs a year ago, throwing for 1,519 yards and nine touchdowns while also rushing for 680 yards and eight scores. During one three-game stretch that included wins over The Citadel, East Tennessee State, and North Carolina, Hill completed a school record 19 straight pass attempts, and he finished the season with a 62.4 completion percentage, the second highest season rate in school history. Hill's 1,320 career rushing yards are the most ever by a Paladin quarterback. Furman is now 18-8 with Hill in the starting lineup. As a freshman in 1997, he paced the Paladins to a 3-0 record in three late season starts. In 1998 Furman went 5-5 with Hill under center (missed one start due to injury), and last season the Paladins forged a 9-3 mark with their veteran quarterback at the controls. The maturity of Hill in 1999 was reflected in the prodigious jump in production by Furman's offense, as the Paladins averaged 36.0 points and 424.3 yards per game after totaling only 24.3 points and 311.1 yards per outing in 1998.

✓ CHARTING LOUIS IVORY...In rushing for 182 yards and a touchdown in Furman's season opening win over Elon on Saturday, junior tailback Louis Ivory (Fort Valley, Ga.) continued to solidify his standing as one of Furman's all-time leading rushers, moving from 11th to eighth on the school's all-time rushing list and, in the process, becoming only the eighth player in Furman football history to run for over 2,000 yards. Last year Ivory made the switch from fullback to tailback on the way to becoming the first Paladin 1,000-yard rusher since Carl Tremble topped the plateau in 1992. In rolling up 1,519 yards and 14 touchdowns in 1999, Ivory posted the second highest season rushing total in Furman history and tallied 100-yard rushing performances in eight games, including a career high 203-yard outing against East Tennessee State (48-21 win). In addition, his 14 rushing touchdowns in 1999 were the second highest season total ever by a Paladin. In a 28-3 victory over North Carolina, Ivory garnered a career high 34 carries for 177 yards — the most yards ever by a Paladin player against an NCAA I-A opponent. Overall Furman is 9-1 in Ivory's 10 career 100-yard rushing performances.

✓ DEREK RUSSELL: TD MAN...Returning

senior fullback Derek Russell (Austell, Ga.) proved during the 1999 season that he had a nose for the end zone as he led Furman in scoring with 90 points on 15 touchdowns despite finishing only fourth in rushing with 337 yards. Russell's 15 rushing TDs tied the school season rushing touchdowns standard first set by Robbie Gardner in 1986 and later matched by Carl Tremble in 1990. Three of Russell's scores, all 1-yard dives, came in the Paladins' 30-23 loss to Massachusetts in NCAA I-AA playoff action. While he is a proven performer as a blocker and runner in short yardage situations, Russell does have a pair of 100-yard rushing performances to his credit, and both have come against Chattanooga. In the Paladins' 40-35, Southern Conference title-clinching win over the Mocs last year, Russell ran for 101 yards on 15 carries, including a decisive 44-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter.

✓ NOTING FURMAN'S OFFENSIVE LINE...Although Southern Conference Jacobs Blocking Award winning guard Ben Hall has graduated, Furman's offensive line should be a team strength this year with the return of four starters. Heading the list are three pre-season All-Southern Conference selections: senior tackle Josh Moore (Cross Hill, S.C.), junior guard Marty Priore (Cincinnati, Ohio), and junior center Chris Stewart (Palm Harbor, Fla.). Moore, a consensus 1999 all-conference first team pick, was recently named to the 2000 Sports Network Pre-Season All-America team and, at 6-foot-5, 306 pounds, is one of the biggest players to ever wear a Paladin uniform. He owns 19 career starts. Prior, meanwhile, has started in 21 consecutive games since moving into the lineup early in 1998 campaign. And Stewart, the team's strongest player (500-pound bench press, 675-pound squat, 357-pound power clean), tallied the highest season blocking grade (89.6%) and winning grades in all 12 games a year ago in helping the Paladins to a 9-3 record and league championship. Furman's other returning starter, junior tackle Donnie Littlejohn, actually boasts more starting experience (22 games) and play participations (1,363) than all Paladin linemen.

✓ GOING FOR A RARE TRIPLE...If tackle Josh Moore, guard Marty Priore, and Chris Stewart make good on their pre-season All-Southern Conference tabs by league head coaches, it will indeed be a rarity. Only twice before, in 1981 and 1990, have three Furman offensive linemen earned first team All-Southern Conference honors in the same year.

✓ SANSBURY PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICA PICK...Although he caught only eight passes for 87 yards and two touchdowns in 1999, junior tight end Trent Sansbury earned consensus All-Southern Conference honors and was recently named to the 2000 Sports Network Pre-Season All-America Team. A solid blocker, Sansbury anchors the tight end slot for Furman this fall along with junior Graham Hunter (Knoxville, Tenn.).

✓ JUNIORS RULE...Even with the exit of junior cornerback Rodney Johnson (Marion, N.C.) from the starting lineup due to a season ending knee injury, a quick check of Furman's probable two-deep reveals the Paladins will likely start only six seniors in this Saturday's game against Newberry. The remainder of Furman's starting cast should include 12 juniors and four sophomores. Four of the six seniors are on offense, and the only two senior defensive starters are linebacker Marion Martin (Columbia, S.C.) and cornerback Andre Stroman (Plantation, Fla.), Johnson's replacement.

✓ MARION MARTIN: ATHLETIC, ACADEMIC STAR...Projected starting weak side linebacker Marion Martin (Columbia, S.C.) is an outstanding student on Furman's football team who contributes in a major way on the field. A year ago Martin racked up 66 tackles in helping Furman to a 9-3 record and Southern Conference championship. After the season he was named to the prestigious GTE Academic All-America second team, joining fellow teammate Stuart Rentz, who earned first team honors, in giving Furman two representatives on the prestigious squad. In May of this year, Martin graduated summa cum laude with a 3.90 grade point average in chemistry. Already closing in on master's degree in chemistry from Furman, Martin opted to return for his final season of eligibility prior to seeking his doctoral degree. In the Paladins' 16-3 win over Elon on Saturday, Martin tallied four tackles and a forced fumble that enabled Furman to avoid a second straight season opening loss to the Phoenix.

✓ BOBBY JOHNSON: YEAR SEVEN...The 2000 football season marks Furman head coach Bobby Johnson's seventh year at the helm of the Paladin program and 23rd season of service to the university. After suffering through a 3-8 season in 1994 (the program's first losing season since 1979), Furman rebounded in 1995 to finish 6-5. A year later, Johnson, a Columbia native and 1973 Clemson graduate, directed the Paladins to a 9-4 record and into the NCAA I-AA playoffs — the program's first playoff appearance since 1990. Furman went 7-4 in 1997, 5-6 in 1998, and 9-3 last year on the way to claiming the program's 10th league championship and second NCAA playoff appearance under Johnson. Johnson's six-year head coaching record is 40-30 (.571) and his last five teams have combined to post a 37-22 mark (.627). Against NCAA I-AA competition, Furman teams under Johnson's direction have gone 39-26 (.600). Johnson's 22-year tenure includes work as defensive backs coach, assistant head coach, defensive coordinator, and head coach. The Paladins' record during that span (1976-80; 82-92; 94-present) is 172-83-7 (.670).

✓ JOHNSON=SUCCESS...Furman's nine wins last year as part of its 9-3 season tied the high water win mark for Bobby Johnson-coached Paladin squad. In 1996, Furman went 8-3 in the regular season and finished with a 9-4 record. The nine regular season wins a year ago were the most by a Furman team since 1989 when the Paladins posted a 10-1 regular season mark on the way to a 12-2 record. Only nine teams in Furman football history (94 seasons) have won at least nine games in a regular season, and Bobby Johnson has had a hand in seven of those squads in the capacities of defensive backs coach, defensive coordinator, and head coach.
