THE GAME

Coming off a 20-10 loss to Georgia Southern in Statesboro on Saturday, NCAA I-AA nationally fifth-ranked Furman returns to action when it hosts Wofford in a key Southern Conference matchup that will be televised live by Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS).

Despite the setback to Georgia Southern, which snapped the Paladins' six-game winning streak, Furman, with only one league loss, has a chance to claim at least a share of the 2001 conference crown if it can post wins in its last two league games against Wofford (Nov. 10) and Chattanooga (Nov. 17).

PROMOTION

Saturday's Furman-Wofford game will highlight Royal Ambassador Day at Furman University. In addition, adults who purchase a general admission ticket can receive one free general admission ticket for children under 17 years of age.

THE SERIES

In a series that got its start in 1889 with a 5-1 Wofford win in Spartanburg in the first football game in South Carolina history, Furman holds a 44-23-7 advantage. Furman enters Saturday's game having claimed wins in five of the last six meetings between the two schools, including a 27-18 decision last year in Spartanburg. Two years ago the Paladins downed the Terriers in Greenville, 30-3. The last time Furman dropped a game to Wofford in Greenville was 1970 by a 28-13 score. Since that contest, Furman has posted a 10-0-2 record against Wofford in Greenville. In the last four games between the two in Paladin Stadium, Furman and has outscored the Terriers 129-13. The Paladins are 27-8-5 versus the Terriers in Greenville; in Spartanburg, Furman owns a slim 17-15-2 advantage.

FURMAN-WOFFORD LAST MEETING

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (Nov. 11, 2000) -- Quarterback Justin Hill threw for 163 yards and a touchdown to lead fourth-ranked Furman to a 27-18 win over Wofford.

The Terriers took a 6-0 lead on a 3-yard touchdown run by Melvin Jones at the 11:08 mark.

A fumble recovery by Brandon Poole at the Wofford 35 led to a 35-yard Danny Marshall field goal that made it a 6-3 game with 4:32 left in the first period.

A little over two minutes later, a short Terrier punt set up a 38-yard Justin Hill touchdown pass to Bryant Huguley, giving the Paladins a 10-6 lead.

Midway through the second quarter Shelvis Smith's interception return led to a 1-yard scoring plunge by Derek Russell that made it 17-6.

After a Terrier field goal closed the gap to 17-9, Furman answered with a 55-yard pass from Hill to Bear Rinehart to the Wofford 25. Six plays later Rinehart took a reverse handoff eight yards around right end for the score and a 24-9 Furman advantage.

A blocked punt by Wofford set up a 1-yard scoring run by Tony Hudson that cut the margin to 24-15, and two possessions later the Terriers made it 24-18 with a 22-yard field goal with 2:18 left in the third period.

Using solid defensive play and a 64-yard Lee Willis punt to keep Wofford in check, Furman took advantage of another short punt to set up a Danny Marshall 24-yard field goal with 6:18 left in the contest for a 27-18 lead.

Wofford saw its upset bid slip away when quarterback Travis Wilson was stripped of the ball by Keito Whetstone, whose forced fumble was recovered by Richie Jackson at the Furman 26 with 4:01 remaining.

Furman then turned to Ivory seven straight times, including a 37-yard burst to the Wofford 33, to clinch the win.

FURMAN LAST TIME OUT

STATESBORO, GA. -- Quarterback J.R. Revere totaled 130 yards in offense and scored two touchdowns to lift NCAA I-AA fourth-ranked Georgia Southern to a 20-10 win over the second-ranked Furman in front of 21,593 fans at Paulson Stadium.

Revere, a senior who did not start in Georgia Southern's two previous games due to injuries, ran for 77 yards and threw for 53 more in helping the Eagles bounce back from a 19-16 loss to unranked East Tennessee State. The defeat snapped a six-game season winning streak by Furman and avenged the Eagles' 45-10 loss to the Paladins last year in Greenville.

Revere's 1-yard touchdown run with 10:33 to go in the game gave Georgia Southern a 17-10 lead, and the Eagles later got a 42-yard field goal from Scott Shelton with 2:28 left to make it 20-10.

Georgia Southern's go-ahead touchdown was set by a fumble recovery by the Eagles' Corey Middlebrooks at the Georgia Southern 23-yard line on the first play of the fourth quarter. Furman had driven 57 yards in eight plays and appeared to be in position to take command of the game, but Middlebrooks pounced on a bad exchange between Paladin quarterback Billy Napier and fullback Corey Tant. From there, Georgia Southern moved 77 yards in nine plays for Revere's decisive score.

After an exchange of possessions, Furman took over at the Georgia Southern 49 with 7:34 left following a short Eagle punt. After Napier connected with James Thomas for 12 yards and a first down to the Georgia Southern 30, the Paladins failed on three successive pass plays before a tipped Napier fourth down pass was intercepted by linebacker Derrick Butler and returned eight yards to the Eagle 27. From there the Eagles moved 48 yards in seven plays for Shelton's 42-yard field goal, which effectively sealed the victory.

The contest featured two of the most prolific running backs in NCAA I-AA in Furman's Louis Ivory and Georgia Southern's Adrian Peterson, and duo, as expected, delivered solid performances. Ivory, the reigning Walter Payton Award winner, ran 23 times for 122 yards and a touchdown while Peterson recorded 24 carries for 158 yards. Ivory's touchdown run, which covered 23 yards on a draw play with less than a minute left in the first half, tied the game at 7-7.

Furman broke the 7-7 deadlock by taking the second half kickoff and moving 71 yards in 10 plays for a Danny Marshall 30-yard field goal.

The Eagles, however, came back to knot the game at 10-10 with a 35-yard field goal by Shelton with 4:13 left in the third quarter, capping a 14-play, 57-yard possession.

Georgia Southern nosed out Furman 329-328 in total offense, and the Eagles outrushed the Paladins 276-132. Furman, however, accounted for 196 yards in the air, with Napier completing 17-of-31 passes. Senior tight end Trent Sansbury matched his career high receptions with five catches for 80 yards, and junior split end Bear Rinehart had five receptions for 57 yards.

NOTING THE PALADINS

✎ WHAT'S AT STAKE...With three games remaining, including two Southern Conference contests, Furman still controls its own destiny as far as contending for the 2001 league championship and earning a bid to the NCAA I-AA playoffs. Currently 6-2 overall and 5-1 in conference play, the Paladins could guarantee themselves a minimum of a share of this year's league crown if they can defeat Wofford in Greenville (Nov. 10) and Chattanooga in Chattanooga (Nov. 17). Georgia Southern, which also has only one league loss, has one conference game remaining at Wofford (Nov. 24). Fuman is currently tied with Duke for the most Southern Conference titles (10) in league history, with the Paladins having claimed championships in 1978, '80, '81, '82, '83, '85, '88, '89, '90, and '99.

✎ BIG CROWD...The 21,593 fans who turned out to see Georgia Southern's 20-10 win over Furman on Saturday represented the largest crowd to see Furman play a Southern Conference game since the 1996 season when a Furman-Marshall regular season contest drew 22,681 fans to Marshall Stadium.

✧ AS A NO. 5 RANKED TEAM...Including rankings during two off weeks, Furman has earned No. 5 rankings 12 times during its tenure as an NCAA I-AA program, and the Paladins have posted an 9-0-1 record in games they have played as a No. 5 ranked team, including three wins over other ranked teams. Last year fifth-ranked Furman defeated Wofford, 27-18, in Spartanburg. The Paladins' eight games while ranked No. 5 include:

✧ FURMAN AS A RANKED TEAM OVERALL...Furman has been ranked a total of 181 times since it and the Southern Conference were reclassified to the NCAA I-AA ranks in 1982. As a ranked* team, Furman has posted a 104-39-2 record (.729).

* Includes preseason polls and polls during regular season off weeks

Note: The poll used for Furman and opponent rankings is the official poll of record for that particular season. The NCAA represented the official rankings from 1982-1992. Since 1993, The Sports Network has been the poll of record.

✧ 19-3 VERSUS SOCON...Buoyed by its 12 consecutive Southern Conference home victories and 5-1 record against league opposition this year, Furman is now 19-4 in its last 23 conference games (.826).

✧ FURMAN STREAKING AT HOME VERSUS SOCON...In beating East Tennessee State, 31-6, on Oct. 20, Furman established a new school record for consecutive home wins (12) against Southern Conference opposition. The previous standard was 11 set by the Paladins during a stretch from 1987-90.

✧ MILESTONE WIN...Furman's 65-7 rout of VMI on Sept. 22 marked the Paladins' 100th win in Paladin Stadium history. Now in its 21st season of play in Paladin Stadium, Furman, counting its 31-6 win over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20, now boasts a 102-27-1 overall record (.788) in the facility.

✧ SUCCESS AT HOME...The following is a breakdown of Furman home records versus current Southern Conference opposition.

FURMAN HOME RECORDS VERSUS CURRENT SOUTHERN CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Opponent	Home Record	Pct
East Tennessee State	13-2	.867
VMI	13-3	.813

Appalachian State	12-3-1	.781
Wofford	27-8-5	.738

Chattanooga	17-12	.586
Georgia Southern	3-9	.250
Totals	195-104-15	.645

✧ COMPETITIVE, EVEN IN DEFEAT...Although Furman owns a solid 25-8 record (.757) in its last 33 games, in the eight losses the Paladins have proven to be tough competition. In fact, over the aforementioned span, Furman's most decisive loss has been 10 points, and the eight setbacks have been by a combined total of 38 points.

Opponent (Year)	Score	Margin of Defeat
Appalachian State (2000)	17-18	- 1
Elon (1999)	22-24	- 2
East Tennessee State (2000)	21-23	- 2

Georgia Southern (2001)	10-20	- 10

✧ DEFENSE STRONG IN 2001...Although Furman dropped a 20-10 decision to Georgia Southern on Saturday, the Paladin defense turned in another consistent performance by holding the high powered Eagle offense to 20 points and 329 total yards — exactly 19.4 points and 93.2 yards below their season average coming into the game. In a 31-6 win over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20, Furman held the Buccaneers to only 199 yards in total offense on 59 plays (3.4 yards per play). Three weeks ago, in the Paladins' 30-7 triumph over The Citadel, Furman limited the Bulldogs to only 160 yards on 55 plays (2.9 yards per play), and in the Paladins' 28-22 win over then nationally fifth-ranked Appalachian State on Oct. 6, Furman held the Mountaineers to only 222 total yards on 81 snaps (2.7 yards per play). Heading into Saturday's game against Wofford, Furman's veteran defense is yielding only 12.8 points and 256.8 yards per game to the opposition. That's a significant improvement over last year, when the Paladins surrendered a respectable 17.4 points and 354.5 yards over 12 games.

✎ 2001 DEFENSE BIDDING TO BE CONSIDERED AMONG BEST IN FURMAN NCAA I-AA HISTORY...As the chart below indicates, Furman's 20001 defensive unit is on pace to rank among the best in several statistical categories since the Southern Conference was reclassified to NCAA I-AA in 1982.

FURMAN DEFENSE LEADERS (1982-Present)

✎ FURMAN LIMITING/MAKING THE BIG PLAY...A big barometer of Furman's success this year has been the Paladins' ability to limit big plays by the opposition and, on the flip side, make big plays on offense, defense, and special teams as the chart below reveals:

LIMITING/MAKING THE BIG PLAY IN 2001

Furman	Category	Opponent
45 (337 att.)	Rushes Over 10 Yards	22 (317 att.)
16 (156 att.)	Passes Over 20 Yards	12 (219 att.)
3 (16 att.)	Kickoff Return TDs	0 (33 att.)
5 (47 att.)	Blocked Punts	0 (27 att.)

✎ "SPECIAL" TEAMS...When Hindley Brigham (Birmingham, Ala.) and Cedrick Ritter (Fiafax, S.C.) recorded blocked punts in the Paladins' 31-6 win over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20, it marked the Paladins' school season record fourth and fifth blocked punts of the season. Those plays and others big plays turned in by the Paladin special teams this year are detailed below:

FURMAN BIG PLAY SPECIAL TEAMS IN 2001

Player	Play	Opponent
Lamar Rembert	blocked punt	VMI
Shelvis Smith	blocked punt	VMI
Brian Bratton	91 kickoff return	VMI
Lamar Rembert	77 kickoff return	VMI
Paul Billingsly	blocked punt	Western Carolina
Brian Bratton	100 kickoff return	Appalachian State
Hindley Brigham	blocked punt	East Tennessee State
Cedrick Ritter	blocked punt	East Tennessee State

✎ OFFICIALLY IT'S 100...The 100-yard kickoff return by redshirt freshman Brian Bratton (Martinez, Ga.) against Appalachian State on Oc. 13 matched the second longest kickoff return in school history. Bratton's return, which equaled a 100-yard return posted by John Popson against The Citadel in 1954, is only exceeded by Vince Perone, Jr.'s school record 103-yard return against Wofford in 1973. Since the NCAA now only recognizes a maximum of 100 yards on a return, regardless of how deep in the end zone the return starts, Bratton's mark will remain 100, although by most estimates his attempt started three to four yards deep in the end zone. He is averaging 33.6 yards per return on 10 attempts this year. Furman's three kickoff returns for touchdowns this fall tie the school season record set only two years ago (1999) when Des Kitchings accounted for three Paladins kickoff return touchdowns in a 9-3, Southern Conference championship season.

✎ NOTING FURMAN'S DEFENSE...Furman's defense, which returned 10 of 11 starters from a year ago, has certainly lived up to expectations thus far in 2001. Since surrendering 422 yards in a season opening 20-14 loss to Wyoming, Furman's defensive unit has allowed only 117 points and 233.1 yards per game over the last seven games while helping the Paladins to a 6-1 record in that stretch. In the 31-6 win over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20, Furman's defense turned in a stellar effort despite missing a pair of All-Southern Conference performers in junior tackle LeBryan Sperling (Decatur, Ga.) with a sprained knee (injured vs. The Citadel) and senior nose guard Ryan Spencer (Clover, S.C.) with a sprained ankle (injured vs. Appalachian State). Senior Steve DeBeer (Atlanta, Ga.), who got the start at nose guard against both The Citadel and East Tennessee State in Spencer's absence, had four tackles, two tackles-for-loss, and a sack assist in the 30-7 win over the Bulldogs and four tackles and a batted pass against the win over the Buccaneers.

✎ SUPER LINEBACKERS...While Furman has gotten stellar play from its defensive line and secondary, one can't deny the contribution made by the Paladin linebacking corps, which certainly ranks as one of the best in NCAA I-AA football. The unit is led by senior All-America and 2000 Southern Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year Will Bouton (Greenville, S.C.), who has started in 43 consecutive games and totaled 443 tackles, good for eighth all-time at Furman. In the 20-10 loss to Georgia Southern on Saturday, Bouton had eight tackles and two quarterback pressures. Senior John Thrift (Hartwell, Ga.), a preseason all-conference pick by the head coaches and owner of 35 career starts and 298 tackles, had nine tackles against Georgia Southern and also came up big in the 31-6 win over the East Tennessee State, totaling four tackles and an interception after collecting 13 tackles, two sacks, and a fumble recovery in a 30-7 win at The Citadel on Oct. 13. And senior Sterling Frierson (Woodrow, S.C.) has been solid in his first full season as starter, totaling 47 tackles, four tackles-for-loss, and a forced fumble. Bouton, Thrift, and Frierson currently rank one, three, and five, respectively, in tackles for Furman heading into Saturday's game against Wofford.

✎ A VERY STRONG SAFETY...Called a "Renaissance Man" by Furman head coach Bobby Johnson, senior strong safety Shelvis Smith (College Park, Ga.), who in growing up sang with the Atlanta Boys Choir and who now performs with Furman's Bell Tower Boys and Furman Gospel Singers, is fashioning a brilliant 2001 football campaign for the Paladins. A team co-captain currently ranked second on the squad in tackles with 66 stops, Smith has also registered two interceptions, six pass deflections, a sack, and blocked punt this season in pacing a fine Paladin secondary. In Saturday's 20-10 loss at Georgia Southern, he tallied 11 tackles. The performance against the Eagles followed a solid outing against East Tennessee State and perhaps the best all-around outing of his career in Furman's 30-7 win at The Citadel on Oct. 13 when he tallied 11 stops, two tackles-for-loss, a sack, an interception, and a pass deflection. Smith's sack, which went for 10 yards on a fourth-and-three play at the Paladin 25, snuffed out a Bulldog scoring threat, and on the next possession his interception halted a Citadel drive at the Furman 26. Furman's strongest performer in the weight room, Smith in spring testing posted a combined lift of 1,288 pounds in three exercises: bench press (480), squat (500), and power clean (308). In January and February of this year, Smith and teammate Brad Byars (Greenwood, S.C.), the Paladins' long snapper, took part in a Furman foreign study program that took them to Italy, Greece, and Turkey.

✎ WELCOME BACK...Junior cornerback Rodney Johnson (Marion, N.C.) has delivered very solid play this season after missing virtually the entire 2000 season with a knee injury sustained following a short interception return in the Paladins' 16-3 season opening win over Elon. Johnson is currently tied for the team lead with two interceptions and has 28 tackles and six pass deflections. An excellent student and GTE Academic All-America candidate, Johnson sports a 3.47 grade point average in health and physical education.

✎ JACKSON EYEING FURMAN INTERCEPTION MARK...Furman senior All-Southern Conference cornerback Richie Jackson (Cincinnati, Ohio) heads into Saturday's game against GWofford only two interceptions shy of the school career interceptions standard. Jackson recorded his 16th career pickoff the Paladins' 28-22 win over Appalachian State on Oct. 6. He is currently tied for second at Furman in career thefts with Vince Perone, Jr. (1972-74) and trails only Jerome Norris (18 interceptions, 1983-86).

FURMAN CAREER INTERCEPTIONS

Rank	Player	Year	No.
1)	Jerome Norris	1983-86	18
2)	Richie Jackson	1998-	16
	Vince Perone, Jr.	1972-74	16
3)	Lavern Barrs	1964-66	14
	Don Calhoun	1968-70	14
	Mark Gordon	1974-76	14
	Steve Squire	1983-86	14
4)	Gib McEachran	1979-82	12
	Ernest Gibson	1980-83	12

🔪 IVORY RUSHES INTO FURMAN HISTORY...In rushing for 131 yards and a touchdown in a 30-7 win over The Citadel on Oct. 13, Furman senior tailback Louis Ivory (Fort Valley, Ga.) eclipsed former great Carl Tremble's school career record of 4,746 yards. Ivory, who followed up his work against The Citadel by rushing for 146 yards and a touchdown in the Paladins' 31-6 victory over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20 and 122 yards and a score in Saturday's 20-10 setback at Georgia Southern on Saturday, now has 5,136 yards in his career, which includes two playoff games. Subtracting the rushing totals from his two playoff game appearances (143 vs. Massachusetts, 1999; 172 vs. Hofstra, 2000), he has 4,821 career yards, which places him third in Southern Conference history. Ivory's 122-yard effort against Georgia Southern also marked the 27th 100-yard rushing performance of his career — a school record.

🔪 MARSHALL ENTERS THE RECORD BOOKS...When sophomore placekicker Danny Marshall (Atlanta, Ga.) connected on a 27-yard field goal in the first quarter in the Paladins' 30-7 win over The Citadel on Oct. 13, it gave him the Furman record for most consecutive made field goals (11). Marshall's streak, which eclipsed the previous record set by Andrew Burr in 1991, reached 12 straight with a 20-yard effort in the Paladins' 31-6 win over East Tennessee State before ending when he missed a 47-yard attempt against the Buccaneers. The run included made field goals in his last five attempts a year ago and first seven tries this year, including three in a 46-7 win over Elon on Sept. 8. As a freshman a year ago, he kicked three field goals in his collegiate debut to lift Furman to a 16-3 win over Elon and, in all, converted 14-of-18 field goals (.777) to finish second only to Chattanooga All-America kicker Matt Vick in kick scoring. Counting a 30-yard field goal against Georgia Southern on Saturday, he has now made good on 22-of-27 field goals (.815) and 78-of-81 PATs (.963) in his career. His 144 points rank him sixth all-time at Furman in kick scoring.

🔪 FAST STARTERS...When Georgia Southern scored a touchdown on its first possession to take a 7-0 in Saturday's 20-10 loss to the Eagles, it marked the first touchdown scored by a Paladin opponent in the first quarter this season. Prior to the TD, the Paladins had only yielded a pair of field goals (Wyoming and East Tennessee State) in the first quarter. Furman has now outscored the opposition 80-13 in the first quarter through eight games.

🔪 QUICK STRIKE PALADINS...Of the 34 touchdowns scored by Furman this fall, 20 have been generated by possessions consuming less than two minutes:

🔪 FINDING THE TIGHT END...If the work turned in by junior quarterback Billy Napier (Chatsworth, Ga.) and senior All-Southern Conference tight end Trent Sansbury (Lilburn, Ga.) in the first eight games continues, it's a safe assumption that the Napier-directed Furman passing attack this fall will continue to showcase the tight end. In the Paladins' 20-10 loss to Georgia Southern on Saturday, Napier connected with Sansbury on five passes for 80 yards to run his season total to 26 catches for 367 yards and a touchdown. In the Paladins' 31-6 triumph over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20, Sansbury caught four passes for 48 yards. In 12 games a year ago Sansbury had 14 receptions for 276 yards and two scores.

🔪 THE BEAR ROARS...Although several Southern Conference teams take to the air more than Furman and, as a byproduct, sport receivers with more catches, one would be hard pressed to find many any better than Furman junior Bear Rinehart (Seneca, S.C.), who tops the Paladin receiving corps with 28 catches for 481 yards and three touchdowns. In Furman's win over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20, Rinehart caught six passes for 74 yards, including one that is quickly gaining consensus as possibly the finest catch by a Paladin receiver in Paladin Stadium history. Although it didn't go for a score, Rinehart's spectacular, one-handed catch at the Buccaneer 3-yard line covered 20 yards and converted a third-and-nine play into a first and goal situation, after which the Paladins scored to go ahead 14-3. Not only a fine receiver, Rinehart filled in on punt return duty against East Tennessee State for an injured Isaac West (Augusta, Ga.) and collected four returns for 46 yards. In his last outing, Rinehart caught five passes for 57 yards in the Paladins' 20-10 loss at Georgia Southern.

🔪 STEPPING INTO THE FIRE...When starting junior quarterback Billy Napier (Chatsworth, Ga.) was pulled after absorbing a hit and with the Paladins leading Western Carolina 21-0 in the first half on Sept. 29, Furman turned to true freshman Bo Moore (Madison, Ga.) to take over. Moore, who came on after Western Carolina scored to make it 21-7 and with the Catamounts bidding to gain momentum, kept Furman on track by directing the Paladins on a 9-play, 77-yard drive that ended when he connected with flanker Bear Rinehart (Seneca, S.C.) on a 22-yard touchdown strike that put Furman safely ahead 28-7 with seconds left in the first half. Included in the scoring drive was a key third down, 13-yard pass from Moore to split end James Thomas (Marianna, Fla.) for a first down at the Western Carolina 28. The touchdown pass was the first of Moore's young career.

🔪 MINIMIZING THE FLAGS...A year ago Furman ranked as the league's least penalized team in the Southern Conference, picking up only 49 infractions for 422 yards during the regular season. Through eight games this year, Furman once again ranks as the league's least penalized team with 32 penalties for 270 yards, an average of 33.8 yards per game.

🔪 THIS 'N THAT...In recording six receptions for 120 yards in the win over Appalachian State on Oct. 6, redshirt freshman wide receiver Isaac West (Augusta, Ga.), who earned Southern Conference Freshman-of-the-Week, posted the first 100-yard receiving performance by a Paladin since Des Kitchings caught seven passes for 169 yards and two scores in a 28-3 win over North Carolina in 1999. When senior All-Southern Conference free safety Josh Cooper (Cincinnati, Ohio) returned a fumble 85 yards for a touchdown against VMI on Sept. 22, it marked the third longest fumble return for a score in Furman history, trailing only the 94-yard return recorded by Kevin Quinlan in a 35-13 loss to North Carolina in 1980 and an 87-yard fumble return by Ray Zima in an 18-13 win over Marshall in 1936. The 91-yard kickoff return by redshirt freshman split end Brian Bratton (Martinez, Ga.) and 77-yard kickoff return for a score by sophomore tailback Lamar Rembert (Ocala, Fla.) against VMI represented the first time in Furman football history the Paladins returned two kickoffs for touchdowns in a game. The nine PAT attempts by sophomore kicker Danny Marshall (Atlanta, Ga.) against VMI tied the Furman standard for most PAT attempts by a player and team in a single game. When Lee Willis (Monticello, Ga.) did not punt in the Paladins' 65-7 rout of VMI, it marked the first time since a 43-7 win over Presbyterian 1992 season that Furman did punt in a game. In rushing eight times for 106 yards and a touchdown against VMI, reserve tailback Hindley Brigham (Birmingham, Ala.) became the first Paladin running back since 1999 to rush for more yards than Louis Ivory. Prior to Brigham, the last Paladin running back to top Ivory in game rushing yardage was Stuart Rentz, who rolled up 144 yards (in relief of Ivory) in a 58-0 Paladin whitewash of VMI in Greenville. Furman's win over VMI marked the 20th consecutive victory over the Keydets, thus making it the longest series winning streak ever recorded by Furman over an opponent. The 65 points were the most scored by a Furman team since 1935 when the Hurricane (as Furman was then known) routed Piedmont 69-0. The 58-point margin of victory tied the existing Furman mark for most decisive Southern Conference victory — a standard first set only two years ago (1999) when Furman steamrolled VMI 58-0 in Greenville. In scoring 111 points against Elon (46-7) and VMI (65-7), Furman matched the greatest two-game scoring total in school history first set in 1920 when W.L. Laval's Hurricane routed Oglethorpe (42-3) and Wofford (69-0) on the way to a 9-1 season.

✎ BLOOD LINES...Furman sophomore defensive end Brandon Poole (Columbia, S.C.) is the son of former University of South Carolina Heisman Trophy winning running back George Rogers.

✎ KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY...Sophomore placekicker Danny Marshall (Atlanta, Ga.) is the son of former Paladin defensive end Tommy Marshall (1974-76), who later served as an assistant coach on the Furman staff for eight years (1986-93), during which time the Paladins captured three Southern Conference titles and the 1988 NCAA I-AA national championship. Redshirt freshman tight end Will Keller (Clayton, Ga.) is the nephew of former Paladin fullback Elliott Keller (1962-63), who led the Southern Conference in rushing in 1962 with 724 yards. Freshman linebacker Andrew Carson (Newnan, Ga.) is the brother of Clemson All-America linebacker Chad Carson. Andrew's father, Tom Carson, played football at Georgia Tech, and his grandfather, Earle Carson, was a three-year letterman and end and honorable mention All-American at Furman (1928-30). A great uncle, M.A. Carson, was a two-time letterwinner as an offensive guard at Furman (1926-27), and another great uncle, Tom Carson, was an All-South offensive tackle selection and three-year letterman who served as captain of Furman's 1931 squad.

✎ THE PARKVIEW CONNECTION...Furman senior starting tight end Trent Sansbury and his backup, true freshman Willis Sudderth, are both products of Lilburn, Ga., and Parkview High School.

✎ NAME GAME...Furman junior wide receiver Bear Rinehart (Seneca, S.C.) is named to legendary Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant.

✎ PALADIN OFFENSIVE LINE AMONG BEST IN NCAA I-AA...Based on what Furman's offensive line helped the Paladins accomplish a year ago and the individual honors accorded virtually every member of the unit, the Paladin offensive front, which returned four of five starters, can rightfully be considered one of the best and most experienced in NCAA I-AA. The cast of four returning regulars -- all but one of whom are seniors -- includes a pair of All-Americans in center Chris Stewart (Palm Harbor, Fla.) and Marty Priore (Cincinnati, Ohio), and All-Southern Conference left tackle Donnie Littlejohn (Gaffney, S.C.). In addition, junior right guard Trevor Kruger (Moultrie, Ga.), who started every game a year ago, is back and has been tabbed a preseason all-conference pick by league head coaches. If also considering senior all-conference tight end Trent Sansbury (Lilburn, Ga.) with the offensive front, the Paladins sport five of their six starting linemen from the 2000 team and boast a combined total of 234 games played and 174 starts in their collective careers.

✎ RARE ACCOMPLISHMENT...When three Furman offensive linemen (OT Josh Moore, OG Marty Priore, and C Christ Stewart) earned first team All-Southern Conference honors a year ago, it marked the first time since 1990 and only the third time in school history (1981 being the other) that three Paladin offensive linemen had earned first team all-league honors. With Priore and Stewart back this fall along with 2000 consensus second team all-conference tackle Donnie Littlejohn, Furman may yet grab three of the five first team all-league offensive line honors.

✎ MUSCLE MEN...Playing a key role in the strong work of Furman's offensive line is the unit's impressive physical strength as reflected in some of the numbers posted by unit members in team weight lifting tests. Leading the way for the third consecutive year is senior center Chris Stewart, Furman's strongest player. In spring testing, Stewart bench pressed 505 pounds, squatted 650 pounds, and power cleaned 347 pounds for a combined lift of 1,502 pounds in three exercises. Stewart's nearest competitor in the combined total was senior strong safety Shelvis Smith (1,288 pounds). Among Furman's other top performing offensive linemen in strength tests was junior tackle Steven Cain, who finished fourth on the team with a combined lift of 1,235 pounds: bench press (405 pounds), squat (500 pounds), and power clean (330 pounds). Senior guard Marty Priore, meanwhile, placed ninth with a total lift of 1,191 pounds, included in which was a squat of 590 pounds.

✎ LOUIS IVORY: "THE IVORY TOWER"...Senior tailback Louis Ivory, a consensus All-America choice, reigning Southern Conference Offensive Player-of-the-Year, and NCAA I-AA football's Walter Payton Award recipient for the 2000 season, is nicknamed "The Ivory Tower", in part, because of his prodigious accomplishments last year. Ivory's nickname also works because the most notable landmark on Furman's campus is an ivory bell tower that overlooks the university's scenic 30-acre lake. The tower, which first gained notoriety as an ivy covered landmark on Furman's old campus in downtown Greenville, has gained new fame thanks, in part, to Ivory. Ivory's complete biographical sketch, as detailed in this year's media guide and updated following his 23-carry, 122-yard, one-touchdown performance against Georgia Southern on Saturday is included below:

Furman: Pleasantly personable young man and outstanding, consensus All-America performer who returned for the 2001 season as the top offensive player in NCAA I-AA football based on his selection as the Walter Payton Award recipient a year ago...in three-plus seasons of play has already shattered a number of school and Southern Conference single game and season rushing records and with a strong senior season could rewrite many more standards...was a lightly recruited fullback out of high school who actually played fullback his freshman year at Furman before moving to tailback prior to the start of the 1999 season...in 32 consecutive starts at tailback over the past two-plus seasons has topped the 100-yard mark in 27 games on the way to 4,730 yards (147.8 ypg) and 42 touchdowns, helping Furman to a 24-8 record in that span...became Furman's all-time leading rusher in the Paladins' 30-7 win over The Citadel on Oct. 13 by rushing 29 times for 131 yards and a touchdown, thereby eclipsing Carl Tremble's previous standard of 4,746 yards...current career rushing total is 5,136 yards...broke Tremble's school record of 25 100-yard rushing performances in a career by rushing for 146 yards and a touchdown in the Paladins' 31-6 win over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20...also shattered Tremble's mark for most career rush attempts (786)...now has 814...owns the first, fourth, sixth, eighth, 10th, and 11th best single game rushing performances in Furman football history...compact, strong, runner who sports solid balance, tackle breaking ability, and impressive durability...likes to run north-south but can employ finesse when needed...possesses excellent leadership ability...highly respected by the coaching staff and teammates for his work ethic and overall mental and physical approach to the game...very coachable...could finish his career as one of the most decorated student-athletes in Furman athletics history...ranked third on team in spring weight testing with combined lift of 1,253 pounds in three exercises: bench press (365), squat (525), power clean (363)...power clean mark led team. 2001 — Rushed 19 times for 136 yards and a touchdown in 20-14, season opening loss to Wyoming...touchdown run covered 44 yards and tied the game at 14-14 in the third quarter...ran 19 times for 126 yards and two touchdowns against Elon (46-7 win)...exited the game for good after scoring on an 8-yard run on Furman's first offensive series of the second half and with the Paladins leading 37-7...notched his ninth straight 100-yard performance with a 10-carry, 100-yard outing in the Paladins' 65-7 rout of VMI...exited the game in favor of reserves with 6:27 to go in the first half and Furman leading 31-0...scored the game's first touchdown for his 40th career rushing touchdown...registered a season high 22 carries for another season high 159 yards and two touchdowns in a 31-13 win at Western Carolina...reeled off 105 of his 159 yards and both touchdowns in the first quarter against the Catamounts...one of his scores covered 67 yards, making it the fourth longest run of his career...performance against Western Carolina earned him Southern Conference Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors...rushed 18 times for only 40 yards and one touchdown in 28-22 win over nationally fifth-ranked Appalachian State...40 yards were lowest total in 31 starts at tailback and lowest since 1998, his freshman year...40-yard effort against ASU snapped his school record string of 10 straight 100-yard performances...lone touchdown against Appalachian State covered 18 yards and included a bruising hit on Mountaineer defensive back Du'Shon Martin at the goal line...bounced back from Appalachian State game with 29-carry, 131-yard, one-touchdown performance against The Citadel (30-7 win) that helped him surpass Carl Tremble (4,746 yards) as Furman's all-time leading rusher...29 rushes versus The Citadel represented a personal season high...ran 22 times for 146 yards and a touchdown to help Furman past East Tennessee State, 31-6...performance against ETSU helped him become the first running back in school history to top 5,000 career rushing yards (5,014)...in most recent outing ran 23 times for 122 yards and a touchdown in 20-10 loss to Georgia Southern...touchdown versus Georgia Southern covered 23 yards on a draw play that tied game 7-7 late in second quarter. 2000 — Fashioned the greatest single season rushing performance and one of the most productive offensive seasons in Furman, Southern Conference, state of South Carolina, and NCAA I-AA football history by rushing 286 times for 2,079 yards, and 16 touchdowns during the regular season in helping the Paladins to a 9-3 record, No. 10 Sports Network final ranking, and second straight playoff appearance...averaged an incredible 7.3 yards per carry...rushing total represented the first 2,000-yard season in the Southern Conference's 78-year history and in the 112-year history of football in South Carolina...189.0 yards per game rushing average led the nation and his closest competitor in NCAA I-AA, Portland State's Charles Dunn (163.0 ypg), by a wide margin...among all ballcarriers in all divisions, was only outrushed by Texas Christian's LaDainian Tomlinson, who totaled 2,158 yards and averaged 196.0 ypg in 11 games...season rushing total was fifth best in NCAA I-AA football history and eighth best in season average...captured the Walter Payton Award, given annually by the Sports Network to the top offensive player in NCAA I-AA football, in ceremonies at New York City's famed Downtown Athletic Club on Dec. 4...became a consensus All-America honoree when he was named to national squads selected by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Sports Network, Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation, and Don Hansen's Football Gazette...recipient of 2000 Banks McFadden South Carolina Player-of-the-Year Award (as voted by the Greenville Touchdown Club) and 2000 South Carolina Male Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year Award (as selected by the South Carolina Athletic Hall-of-Fame)...was also honored as 2000-01 Furman Male Athlete-of-the-Year and became the eighth athlete in school history to garner Southern Conference Athlete-of-the-Year accolades when he was accorded the honor in Myrtle Beach in late May...had January 23, 2001, proclaimed "Louis Ivory Day In South Carolina" by governor Jim Hodges in ceremonies at the state capitol in Columbia...including one playoff game, totaled 2,251 yards and 18 touchdowns on the 2000 season, rushing for more than 100 yards in 11 of Furman's 12 games...became the 13th Southern Conference Player-of-the-Year selection in Furman history when he was a consensus choice in separate balloting by league head coaches and media...recorded five scoring runs greater than 50 yards: 88 vs. William & Mary, 75 vs. Elon, 73 vs. Georgia Southern, 65 vs. Western Carolina, and 58 vs. The Citadel...88-yard run was the second longest in Furman history...spearheaded a Paladin ground attack that averaged a school season record 307.5 rushing yards per game...individual rushing total topped Furman's previous season standard of 1,555 yards set by Carl Tremble (1992)...rushed for a school single game record 301 yards and three touchdowns in a 45-10 win over top-ranked, defending, and eventual national champion Georgia Southern in Greenville...301-yard performance versus Georgia Southern, which earned him Sports Network National Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors, shattered Furman's single game standard of 261 yards set by Mike Glenn against Presbyterian in 1980 and the conference single game record of 286 yards set by The Citadel's Gene Brown versus VMI in 1988...it also represented the highest rushing total ever posted by a Georgia Southern opponent and keyed a 404-yard Furman rushing performance against the Eagles that snapped a string of 53 consecutive games in which Georgia Southern had outrushed its opponent...in all topped the 200-yard mark in five games: 301 vs. Georgia Southern (45-10 win), 232 vs. William & Mary (34-10 win), 227 vs. East Tennessee State (23-21 loss), 214 vs. The Citadel (33-7 win), and 207 vs. Chattanooga (45-44 OT win)...established a new Furman single game rushing attempts record with 41 carries against East Tennessee State...became the fastest player (seven games) in Furman history to reach 1,000 rushing yards when he rushed for 214 yards against The Citadel...averaged 214.3 ypg over Furman's final six contests...in all was named Southern Conference Offensive Player-of-the-Week four times...took home Furman's Best Offensive Back and Paladin (MVP) Award following the season. 1999 — Made the successful switch from fullback to tailback and led team and finished second in the Southern Conference in rushing with 1,519 yards and 14 touchdowns...averaged a solid 6.1 yards per carry...became the first Furman 1,000-yard rusher since Carl Tremble reached the plateau in 1992...1,519 yards at the time represented the second highest single season total in school history...played a major role in Furman's offensive improvement (424.3 ypg, 36.0 ppg), which sparked the Paladins to a 9-3 record, Southern Conference championship, and an invitation to the NCAA I-AA playoffs...earned starts in all 12 games and posted eight 100-yard rushing performances, including a career high 203-yard show in a 48-21 win over East Tennessee State...his 203-yard performance against East Tennessee State earned him league offensive player-of-the-week honors and represented the first 200-yard outing by a Paladin running back since 1996...rushed a career high 34 times for 177 yards and a touchdown in a 28-3 win over North Carolina...177 yards versus Tar Heels are the most ever by a Paladin running back against an NCAA I-A opponent...sparked Furman's decisive 35-21 triumph over Appalachian State by breaking 13 tackles on the way to 135 yards and two touchdowns, for which he was named conference offensive player-of-the-week...scored a decisive touchdown on a 43-yard run with 2:28 left in the game in the Paladins' 27-19 win over Western Carolina...took home the team's Best Offensive Back Award following the season.

1998 — Emerged as one of Furman's top freshmen, earning the starting job at fullback and rushing for 202 yards and two touchdowns in the Paladins' first two games before being slowed with a sprained ankle early in the Samford game (34-24 win)...injury forced him to miss the VMI contest and limited him to only two starts thereafter...did not see action in the season finale against Chattanooga...earned Southern Conference Freshman-of-the-Week honors after rushing 23 times for 161 yards and two touchdowns against South Carolina State (27-19 win)...performance against S.C. State included a season best, 54-yard touchdown run and represented the most yards by a Furman fullback since the 1989 season...also ran for 80 yards against East Tennessee State (22-19 overtime loss)...other touchdown runs covered 17 yards against Western Carolina (31-7 win) and three yards versus Georgia Southern (45-17 loss)...finished the season as Furman's second leading rusher with 406 yards and four touchdowns.

High School: 1998 graduate of Peach County High School...football coach was Rodney Walker...started for four years at running back and helped his program post a 39-9 record, including back-to-back 11-1 records and region championships his junior and senior seasons...in all ran for over 3,100 yards and scored 37 touchdowns in his career...rushed for 1,081 yards and scored 13 touchdowns in 1997, his senior season...selected to play in the prestigious Georgia-Florida All-Star Game.

✎ FURMAN'S IVORY FEATURED IN SPORTS ILLUSTRATED, USA TODAY...Furman senior consensus All-America tailback Louis Ivory was featured in Sports Illustrated Magazine's August 13 College Football Preview issue. Ivory, the reigning Walter Payton Award winner, was quoted extensively in the magazine's two-page NCAA I-AA preview story. Furman's heralded running back was also featured in the August 13 edition of USA Today, as part of an extensive story on Furman's 2001 season outlook.

✎ FURMAN ADDS 11TH GAME...Furman director of athletics Gary Clark announced recently that the Paladin football team has added an 11th game for the 2001 season after having its scheduled Sept. 15 game at Liberty canceled following terrorist attacks on the United States. On Nov. 24 Furman will host Presbyterian at Paladin Stadium in a 2:00 p.m. game. Furman, which holds a 36-11-1 series advantage over PC, defeated the Blue Hose 43-7 in 1992 in the last meeting between the two schools.

✎ JOHNSON EQUALS SUCCESS...Furman's 9-3 season a year ago matched the high water win mark for a Bobby Johnson-coached Paladin squad first set in 1996 when Furman went 9-4 and later matched in 1999 as part of the Paladins' 9-3 campaign. The nine regular season wins the last two years are the most by a Furman team since 1989 when the Paladins posted a 10-1 regular season mark on the way to a 12-2 record. Only 11 teams in Furman football history (95 seasons) have won at least nine games in a regular season, and Bobby Johnson has had a hand in eight of those squads (1980, '82, '83, '85, '88, '89, '99, and '00), including two as head coach.

✎ JOHNSON & JOHNSON (& JOHNSON)...It's ironic that of the nine Southern Conference football playing institutions, three schools have head coaches whose last name is Johnson: Furman's Bobby Johnson; Georgia Southern's Paul Johnson; and The Citadel's Ellis Johnson. In terms of coaching seniority in the league, Furman's Bobby Johnson, who took over the Paladin program in 1994, ranks first. Paul Johnson (1997) is next, and Ellis Johnson is third (2001).

✎ FOUR PALADIN FOOTBALL GREATS SELECTED TO FURMAN ATHLETIC HALL-OF-FAME...Former football standouts Tim Sorrells '81, Rock Hurst '86, Kevin Kendrick '91, and Hazel Gilstrap '43 were among seven honorees inducted into the Furman Athletic Hall-of-Fame in ceremonies prior to Furman's football game against VMI on Sept. 22

Sorrells, a four-year letterman and two-time All-Southern Conference selection as a quarterback, helped lead Furman to a pair of conference championships in 1980 and '81. A Greeneville, Tenn., product and two-time Paladin (MVP) Award recipient, he paced Furman to a 20-5-1 record as a starter and currently ranks fourth on Furman's career passing touchdowns chart (31) and 10th in passing yards with (2,945 yards). Furman's current offensive coordinator, he has served as an assistant coach at Furman since 1986, helping direct the Paladins to four league championships and the 1988 NCAA I-AA national title.

A two-sport standout in football and baseball, Hurst was named 1984-85 Southern Conference Athlete-of-the-Year. He served as co-captain and led Furman with 160 tackles in 1984 on the way to earning team MVP and AFCA/Kodak All-America honors as a linebacker. In four seasons of play, the Knoxville, Tenn., product helped the Paladins notch a 35-11-1 record and claim three league championships, and his 364 career tackles rank 11th on the school's career charts. In baseball, Hurst twice earned all-conference honors as a catcher, and he batted .382 with 12 home runs and 48 RBI his senior year. Ranked third on the Paladin career charts in home runs (31) and fourth in RBI (117), his .340 career batting average is the third best all-time at Furman, and his .616 career slugging percentage is still a school standard.

Kendrick served as a team co-captain and earned Southern Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year and consensus All-America honors as a linebacker in 1990 after totaling a team high 179 tackles. A starter on Furman's 1988 NCAA I-AA championship team that posted a 13-2 record and led the nation in scoring defense (9.5 ppg), the Smyrna, Ga., native helped the Paladins to three straight league titles in 1988, '89, and '90 and a 41-12 mark during his career — the winningest four-year stretch in school history. His 574 career tackles ranks second all-time at Furman.

An Easley, S.C. product and three-year letterman as a tackle in 1939, '40, '41, Gilstrap played on Furman squads that posted wins over Georgia, North Carolina State, and South Carolina (twice), among others. A two-time honorable mention All-South Carolina selection and team MVP in 1941, he also played in the Carolinas Lions Bowl his senior year. A successful prep coach at Charleston's St. Andrews High School, where he went 108-48-7 and won two state championships, he later served as president of the Southern Conference, director of athletics at Appalachian State, and as a member of the NCAA Steering Committee.

✓ FURMAN AND THE NFL...Furman football currently sports three graduates on NFL rosters. Tight end Luther Broughton '97 (Cainhoy, S.C.) is now in his second stint with the Carolina Panthers and fifth season overall in the NFL. A fifth-round draft pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in 1997, Broughton spent the 1997 campaign with the Eagles before signing the Carolina Panthers, with whom he played the entire 1998 season before being traded back to the Eagles prior to the start of the 1999 campaign. After playing with the Eagles in 1999 and 2000, during which time he caught 38 passes for 399 yards and four touchdowns, he re-signed with the Panthers earlier this year. Linebacker Orlando Ruff '99 (Winnsboro, S.C.) is in his third season with the San Diego Chargers as a middle linebacker. In 2000 he started in 14 of 16 games for the Chargers and racked up 68 tackles, an interception, and five pass deflections. John Keith '00 (Newnan, Ga.), a fourth round pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 2000, earned two starts at safety and totaled 18 tackles, a sack, and an interception before sustaining a broken arm in an overtime loss to the Oakland Raiders last year. Keith recently sustained a torn anterior cruciate ligament and is out for the entire 2001 season.

GAME 1Wyoming 20, Furman 14

September 1, 2001

War Memorial Stadium

Attendance: 14,167

LARAMIE, WY. -- Jarvis Wallum booted four field goals, including two in the second half, to lift the Wyoming Cowboys to a 20-14 season opening win over the visiting Furman Paladins in front of 14,167 fans at War Memorial Stadium.

In posting the victory, Wyoming, an NCAA I-AA member of the Mountain West Conference, snapped an eight-game losing streak dating back to the 2000 season. The loss was the second for NCAA I-AA sixth-ranked Furman in its last three season openers.

Trailing 14-7 at halftime, Furman tied the score at 14-14 when tailback Louis Ivory, the reigning Walter Payton Award winner in NCAA I-AA, broke loose on a 44-yard touchdown run with 3:23 left in the third quarter. Wyoming, however, answered on its next possession by moving 75 yards in 10 plays to set up Wallum's third field goal of the game, from 22 yards out, to give the Cowboys a 17-14 advantage with less than a minute remaining in the third period.

Wallum added his fourth field goal, a 28-yarder with 10:00 to go in the contest, to stretch the Cowboys' lead to 20-14.

On the ensuing possession, Furman drove from its 35 to the Wyoming 7, where on a third and four play Paladin wide receiver Bear Rinehart was tackled for a three-yard loss on a reverse. Instead of kicking the field goal, Furman went for a touchdown, but quarterback Billy Napier's pass to a slanting and open Rinehart in the end zone was low and incomplete.

Taking over possession with 6:10 remaining, Wyoming ground up the game clock by moving 73 yards in 12 plays to the Furman 17, where Wallum missed a 34-yard field goal attempt with only 17 seconds left in the game.

The Cowboys, who racked up 87 offensive plays to Furman's 58, amassed 422 yards in offense in the contest and were paced by sophomore quarterback Casey Bramlet, who completed 30-of-48 passes for 331 yards. Bramlet, who scored Wyoming's lone touchdown of the game on a 1-yard run in the second quarter to give the Cowboys a 14-7 lead, connected with sophomore wide receiver Ryan McGuffey on 10 passes for 134 yards.

Furman was paced offensively by Ivory, who rushed 19 times for 136 yards and one touchdown. Furman netted 349 yards in offense, including 169 from quarterback Billy Napier, who completed 12-of-24 passes in the contest, but the Paladins suffered two turnovers, including a fumble at the Cowboy 38 and an interception that led to a Wyoming field goal. Bear Rinehart paced all Paladin receivers with four receptions for 97 yards.

GAME 2Furman 46, Elon 7

September 8, 2001

Paladin Stadium

Attendance: 10,322

GREENVILLE -- Louis Ivory rushed for 126 yards and two touchdowns to lead the NCAA I-AA nationally sixth-ranked Furman Paladins to a 46-7 win over the visiting Elon Phoenix at Paladin Stadium.

Ivory rushed 19 times and scored on runs of 2 and 8 yards while recording his eighth straight 100-yard performance and 22nd 100-yard outing of his career.

The win gave Furman (1-1) its 99th victory in Paladin Stadium since moving into the facility in 1981. It also marked the Paladins' second straight decision over Elon (0-2), which committed six turnovers.

Furman outgained Elon 452-180 and got a strong performance from junior quarterback Billy Napier, who connected on 12-of-19 passes for 192 yards and two touchdowns. Tight end Trent Sansbury led all Paladin receivers with five catches for 86 yards and a score.

Furman took advantage of a pair of Elon turnovers in the first quarter to race to a 21-0 lead.

An interception and 23-yard return by Shelvis Smith gave the Paladins the ball at Elon 19, and four plays later Napier hit Bear Rinehart on an 8-yard scoring strike to put Furman up 7-0 only three minutes into the game.

On its next possession, Furman moved 58 yards in nine plays to extend its lead to 14-0 following a 2-yard run by Ivory at the 4:53 mark.

A fumble recovery by Paladin defensive tackle LeBryan Sperling at the Elon 42 on the Phoenix's next possession set up another Furman score, which came on the next play when Napier connected with Sansbury on a 42-yard touchdown at the 1:53 juncture.

Elon trimmed Furman's lead to 21-7 with an 11-yard touchdown run by Martin Swindell with 10:38 left in the first half, but the Paladins answered with three Danny Marshall field goals covering 22, 33, and 28 yards to extend the lead to 30-7 by halftime.

Furman upped its margin to 37-7 on its first possession of the second half with an 8-yard scoring run by Ivory before benching its first team offense and defense in favor of reserves.

Reserve tailback Hindley Brigham tallied the Paladins' last score on a 65-yard touchdown run on the first rushing attempt of his career.

GAME 3Furman 65, VMI 7

September 22, 2001

Paladin Stadium

Attendance: 10,152

GREENVILLE -- Josh Cooper's 85-yard fumble return for a touchdown keyed a 24-point second quarter outburst and helped lead NCAA I-AA nationally fourth-ranked Furman to a 65-7 rout of VMI.

The win, Furman's 20th straight over the Keydets, marked Furman's 100th victory in Paladin Stadium history, and the 65 points were the most since 1935. The triumph was also the Paladins' 10th consecutive home victory against Southern Conference opposition.

With Furman leading 14-0, Cooper picked up a fumble by VMI's Pedro Garcia at the Furman 15 and raced untouched 85 yards for the touchdown to put the Paladins ahead 21-0 at the 14:15 mark of the second quarter.

An interception by Rodney Johnson on VMI's next possession led to 26-yard field goal by Danny Marshall that extended the lead to 24-0.

A blocked punt by Shelvis Smith at the Furman 43 led to the Paladins' next score. After quarterback Billy Napier connected on a 41-yard pass to tight end Trent Sansbury to the Keydet 16, Louis Ivory ripped off a 13-yard run to the 3, and Napier completed the 3-play, 57-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run to make it 31-0 with 6:27 left in the half.

Furman capped its 24-point second period explosion with an 11-play, 69-yard drive that ended when backup tailback Toreico O'Neal scored on a 2-yard run of the last play of the first half to make it 38-0.

A 91-yard kickoff return by Brian Bratton to open the second half made it 45-0, and the Paladins later added a second kickoff return for a touchdown when Lamar Rembert bolted 79 yards following VMI's only score of the game to give Furman a 58-7 advantage.

Furman, which outgained VMI 435-223, got 100 yards on 10 carries and a touchdown from All-America tailback Louis Ivory, who exited the game midway through the second period in favor of reserves. For Ivory, the 100-yard performance was his ninth straight and the 23rd of his career. Reserve tailback Hindley Brigham paced all Paladin rushers with eight carries for 106 yards and a touchdown.

GAME 4Furman 31, Western Carolina 13

September 29, 2001

E.J. Whitmire Stadium

Attendance: 8,714

CULLOWHEE, N.C. -- Louis Ivory rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns to lead NCAA I-AA fourth-ranked Furman to a 31-13 Southern Conference win over Western Carolina.

Ivory scored on runs of 3 and 67 yards to help stake Furman to a 21-0 first quarter lead. The 158-yard effort, his 10th straight 100-yard performance and 24th century rushing outing of his career, upped his career rushing total to 4,697 yards, leaving him just 49 yards shy of Carl Tremble's school career rushing standard.

Furman, which scored on its first four possessions of the game, took a 7-0 lead on a 3-yard run by freshman fullback Eric Emerson that capped a 5-play, 55-yard drive.

On Western Carolina's second possession, Paul Billingsly recorded Furman's third blocked punt in its last two games and recovered it at the Catamount 15-yard line. Three plays later Ivory bulled over from three yards out with 5:55 left in the first quarter to give the Paladins a 14-0 lead.

Furman struck for its third touchdown with only seconds left in the opening period when Ivory took a handoff from quarterback Billy Napier and bolted 67 yards to give the Paladins a 21-0 advantage.

A 20-play, 80-yard drive put Western Carolina on the board with a 2-yard touchdown run by Donnie Bryant at the 5:10 juncture of the second quarter, but Furman answered with another impressive scoring drive under the direction of true freshman quarterback Bo Moore, who came off the bench for a shaken up Napier.

Using a 26-yard run by Lamar Rembert and a key third down, 13-yard pass to James Thomas for a first down, Moore moved the Paladins 77 yards in nine plays and connected with Bear Rinehart on a 22-yard strike with only 45 seconds remaining in the first half to make it 28-7.

Napier, who returned to the field on Furman's first possession of the second half, set up the Paladins' final score of the contest when he hooked up with James Thomas on a 41-yard pass to the Catamount 8-yard line midway through the fourth quarter. Three plays later Danny Marshall booted his school record tying 10th straight field goal to give Furman a 31-7 lead.

Paced by senior linebacker John Thrift's two quarterback takedowns, Furman's defense registered four sacks in the contest. Senior All-America linebacker Will Bouton, the 2000 Southern Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year, led all Paladin tacklers with nine stops.

GAME 5Furman 28, Appalachian State 22

October 6, 2001

Paladin Stadium

Attendance: 14,411

GREENVILLE — Billy Napier passed for 159 yards and two touchdowns to lift NCAA I-AA third-ranked Furman to a 28-22 win over fifth-ranked Appalachian State in front of 14,411 fans at Paladin Stadium.

Napier completed 9-of-15 passes and connected with freshman flanker Isaac West for both scores in the second half on plays covering 39 and 30 yards. West had six pass receptions for 120 yards and five punt returns for 42 yards.

The win was the third straight by Furman over Appalachian State in Greenville and the 11th consecutive league home win for the Paladins.

Appalachian State, which tallied 81 offensive snaps to Furman's 45, outgained the Paladins 222-194 in total offense, but the Mountaineers managed only 2.7 yards per snap to Furman's 4.3.

All-America tailback Louis Ivory, who came into the game 50 yards shy of Furman's career rushing record, was held to 40 yards on 18 carries, but Ivory's 18-yard touchdown run with 4:17 left in the first half put the Paladins ahead for good at 14-7.

The Paladins raced to a 7-0 lead on the game's first play when Brian Bratton took the opening kickoff and sprinted 100 yards for a touchdown.

Appalachian State's Jerry Beard tied the game at 7-7 with a 13-yard run with 13:51 left in the second quarter.

Leading 14-7 at the half, Furman linebacker Will Bouton pounced on an Appalachian State fumble at the Mountaineer 39-yard line, and on the next play Napier hit a streaking West for a 39-yard touchdown strike to stretch the Paladin advantage to 21-7 at the 4:43 mark of the third period.

The Mountaineers made it 21-14 on a Joey Hoover 1-yard touchdown run with 11:14 left in the game, but two possessions later a 17-yard punt return by West to the Appalachian State 30 set up the Paladins' final score, which came one play later when Napier found West behind the Mountaineer secondary for a 30-yard touchdown pass with 7:46 left.

After Furman's Richie Jackson intercepted a Joe Burchette pass at the Paladin 1-yard line, Furman punter Lee Willis ran out of the end zone for a safety to make it 28-16 with 3:13 left.

Appalachian State regained possession at the Furman 43 on the ensuing kickoff, and eight plays later Burchette connected with Jose White on a 3-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-22 with 1:26 remaining. Appalachian State's onside kick, however, was recovered by Furman's James Thomas at the 50-yard line, allowing the Paladins to run out the game clock.

GAME 6Furman 30, The Citadel 7

October 13, 2001

Johnson Hagood Stadium

Attendance: 16,982

CHARLESTON, S.C. -- Louis Ivory rushed 29 times for 131 yards and a touchdown en route to setting Furman's all-time rushing record in the Paladins' 30-7 victory over The Citadel in front of 16,982 fans at Johnson Hagood Stadium.

Ivory, the 2000 Walter Payton Award winner as the top offensive player in NCAA I-AA football, pushed his career rushing total to 4,868 yards, eclipsing Carl Tremble's record of 4,746 yards. The Furman senior also registered the 25th 100-yard rushing performance of his career to tie the school standard for most career 100-yard games.

Furman got the ball rolling early and never looked back as the Paladins scored at the 6:23 mark in the first quarter when freshman fullback Eric Emerson rumbled 11 yards for a touchdown. The run capped a 12-play, 59-yard drive that lasted 5:57.

Furman's offense then capitalized on the strong play of its defense as sophomore placekicker Danny Marshall converted a 27-yard field goal — his school record 11th straight — at the 1:49 mark in the first quarter to give the Paladins a 10-0 lead.

The Paladins struck for two more scores late in the second quarter when Ivory finished off a seven-play, 51-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run and quarterback Billy Napier connected with flanker Bear Rinehart on a 24-yard touchdown pass to take a 23-0 advantage into half-time.

The Citadel seized momentum on the first play of the second half when James Greene recovered a fumble after the Bulldogs' T.J. Rose sacked Napier at the Furman 24-yard line. Two plays later Nate Mahoney jaunted 13 yards for the touchdown to slice the Furman lead to 23-7. The Paladins' defense, however, dashed any Bulldog comeback bid by halting the Bulldogs on their next two possessions, which ended on downs and with an interception by strong safety Shelvis Smith.

Furman freshman fullback Al Means ran 10 yards with 4:52 left in the game to account for the Paladins' final score of the contest.

Napier helped lead the Paladins, completing 9-of-18 passes for 133 yards and a touchdown, and rushed 12 times for 58 yards. Rinehart paced the Furman receiving corps with five receptions for 82 yards and a score. The Paladins also received a strong effort from senior linebacker John Thrift, who led the team with 11 tackles, two tackles-for-loss, a fumble recovery, and a sack. Senior strong safety Shelvis Smith posted nine stops, which included two for a loss of 12 yards, a sack, and an interception.

The win was Furman's third straight and sixth triumph in the last seven meetings with the Bulldogs.

GAME 7 Furman 31, East Tennessee State 6

October 20, 2001

Paladin Stadium

Attendance: 11,009

GREENVILLE -- Louis Ivory rushed for 146 yards and a touchdown to lift NCAA I-AA third ranked Furman to a 31-6 Southern Conference win over East Tennessee State in front of 11,009 homecoming fans at Paladin Stadium.

In posting the win Furman claimed its school record 12th straight conference home victory but only the second decision in its last six meetings with East Tennessee State.

In rushing 26 times for 146 yards, Ivory, the 2000 Walter Payton Award winner, recorded his school record 26th 100-yard rushing performance and became the first Furman player in history to top 5,000 rushing yards in a career. The Paladin senior tailback now has 5,014 yards.

Furman took an early 7-0 lead after Hindley Brigham blocked an East Tennessee State punt out of bounds at the Buccaneer 7. Two plays later Ivory ran seven yards for the score at the 10:34 mark of the first quarter.

After East Tennessee State cut the Paladin advantage to 7-3 on a Scott Salmons 37-yard field goal, Furman moved 69 yards in 11 plays for its second touchdown, which came on a 1-yard run by fullback Eric Emerson at the 12:58 juncture of the second quarter.

Leading 14-6 at intermission, Furman capitalized with good field position in the third quarter to add to its advantage. A 16-yard punt return by Bear Rinehart to the Buccaneer 41 set up a six-play drive that ended when Emerson registered his second score of the contest with a 5-yard run off left tackle to make it 24-6 with 5:14 remaining the third quarter.

The Paladins added a 5-yard touchdown run by backup fullback Al Means late in the fourth quarter to close out the scoring.

Furman, which outgained East Tennessee State 364-199, got 166 yards passing from junior quarterback Billy Napier, who completed 15-of-23 passes. His favorite target was Rinehart, who totaled six receptions for 74 yards while also totaling 47 yards on four punt returns.

With starting nose guard Ryan Spencer and tackle LeBryan Sperling out with injuries, Furman's defense was paced by strong safety Shelvis Smith's seven tackles, including two for loss.

Furman placekicker Danny Marshall, who converted a school record 12th straight field goal attempt in the second quarter, had the streak stopped when he missed a 47-yard attempt late in the second period..

GAME 8 Georgia Southern 20, Furman 10

November 3, 2001

Paladin Stadium

Attendance: 21,593

STATESBORO, GA. -- Quarterback J.R. Revere totaled 130 yards in offense and scored two touchdowns to lift NCAA I-AA fourth-ranked Georgia Southern to a 20-10 win over the second-ranked Furman in front of 21,593 fans at Paulson Stadium.

Revere, a senior, ran for 77 yards and threw for 53 more in helping the Eagles bounce back from a 19-16 loss to un-ranked East Tennessee State. The defeat snapped a six-game season winning streak by Furman and avenged the Eagles' 45-10 loss to the Paladins last year in Greenville.

Revere's 1-yard touchdown run with 10:33 to go in the game gave Georgia Southern a 17-10 lead, and the Eagles later got a 42-yard field goal from Scott Shelton with 2:28 left to make it 20-10.

Georgia Southern's go-ahead touchdown was set by a fumble recovery by the Eagles' Corey Middlebrooks at the Georgia Southern 23-yard line on the first play of the fourth quarter. Furman had driven 57 yards in eight plays and appeared to be in position to take command of the game, but Middlebrooks pounced on a bad exchange between quarterback Billy Napier and fullback Corey Tant. From there, Georgia Southern moved 77 yards in nine plays for Revere's decisive score.

After an exchange of possessions, Furman took over at the Georgia Southern 49 with 7:34 left following a short Eagle punt. After Napier connected with James Thomas for 12 yards and a first down to the Georgia Southern 30, the Paladins failed on three successive pass plays before a tipped Napier fourth down pass was intercepted by linebacker Derrick Butler. From there the Eagles moved 48 yards in seven plays for Shelton's 42-yard field goal, which effectively sealed the victory.

Louis Ivory, the reigning Walter Payton Award winner, ran 23 times for 122 yards and a touchdown while Georgia Southern's Adrian Peterson recorded 24 carries for 158 yards. Ivory's touchdown run, which covered 23 yards on a draw play with less than a minute left in the first half, tied the game at 7-7.

Furman broke the 7-7 deadlock by taking the second half kickoff and moving 71 yards in 10 plays for a Danny Marshall 30-yard field goal.

The Eagles, however, came back to knot the game at 10-10 with a 35-yard field goal by Shelton with 4:13 left in the third quarter, capping a 14-play, 57-yard possession.

Georgia Southern nosed out Furman 329-328 in total offense, and the Eagles outrushed the Paladins 276-132.
