THE GAME

The Southern Conference champion Furman Paladins make their third national championship game appearance this Friday when they square off against the Big Sky Conference champion Montana Grizzlies at Chattanooga's Finley Stadium on ESPN. Kickoff is set for 5:37 p.m.

Furman, the No. 3 seed in this year's NCAA I-AA tournament field, advanced to the championship game with wins over Western Kentucky (24-20), Lehigh (34-17), and Georgia Southern (24-17) — the latter of which snapped Georgia Southern's NCAA I-AA record 39-game home winning streak and marked the 500th win in school history. The Paladins won the 1988 title by defeating Georgia Southern, 17-12, in Pocatello, Idaho.

Montana, the No. I seed, knocked off Northwestern State (28-19). Sam Houston State (49-24), and Northern Iowa (38-0) to gain its second straight and fourth overall national championship game appearance. The Grizzlies, who fell to Georgia Southern, 27-25, in last year's title clash in Chattanooga, won the championship in 1995 by defeating Marshall in Huntington, W.Va, 22-20.

TICKETS

2001 NCAA I-AA national championship game tickets are $20 and go on sale at the Furman Ticket Office at Timmons Arena beginning Monday at 10:00 a.m. Ticket office hours are 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., and the telephone number is (864) 294-3099. Tickets may be purchased at Furman through Wednesday. Beginning Thursday, tickets may be purchased by calling the Finley Stadium Ticket Office at 423-266-6627. Game day tickets will go on sale at the stadium beginning at 2:00 p.m. Friday.

FURMAN LAST TIME OUT

STATESBORO, GA. (Dec. 15) -- Georgia Southern football fans affectionately refer to Paulson Stadium as "Our House", but on Saturday the Furman Paladins, with 2000 Walter Payton Award winning tailback Louis Ivory sidelined with an injured knee, served an eviction notice by bouncing the Eagles 24-17 to advance to the NCAA I-AA championship game against Montana.

Winners of 39 straight games in Paulson Stadium and 27-0 in home playoff contests over the years, Georgia Southern (12-2) saw Furman (12-2) convert a pair of early third quarter fumbles into 10 points, helping the Paladins erase a 17-7 halftime deficit on the way to the win -- the first by an Eagle opponent in Paulson Stadium since William & Mary edged Georgia Southern 29-28 during the 1997 season.

Furman's appearance in the championship game will be the program's third overall and first since 1988, when the Paladins defeated Georgia Southern 17-12 in Pocatello, Idaho, to become the first Southern Conference team to win a national title.

"We did something nobody had ever done, we beat them down here in a playoff game," said Gatorade-drenched Furman head coach Bobby Johnson. "It just feels great for our coaches and players, because they've worked so hard and talked so much about getting to this point."

"To win here feels wonderful, because they're a great football team, but, listen, it's great to beat Georgia Southern anywhere. I don't care if it's on Mars," said Furman linebacker Will Bouton, who registered 10 tackles, three tackles-for-loss, and a sack to lead a stout Paladin defense.

Furman's opportunity to play for another national championship appeared in doubt after Georgia Southern struck for a pair of touchdowns in the final minutes of the first half. Trailing 7-3, slotback Mark Myers put the Eagles ahead 10-7 when he took an option pitch from quarterback J.R. Revere and raced 51 yards for a score with 3:22 left. Then, after stopping Furman on three plays and forcing a punt, Georgia Southern used a 58-yard pass from Revere to Derrick Owens to the quickly cover 84 yards for its second touchdown of the game, which came on 11-yard run by Revere with only 20 seconds left before intermission.

Furman's fortunes, however, changed quickly in the third quarter.

On the second half kickoff, the Eagles' Justin Wright botched the reception, and Cam Newton picked up the ball and returned it to the Eagle 18. From there Furman drove to the 2 before settling for a Danny Marshall 19-yard field goal that cut the Georgia Southern lead to 17-10.

On the Eagles' first play from scrimmage on the ensuing possession, Furman's Eddie Overdyke pounced on a Zzream Walden fumble at the Georgia Southern 21, and on the next play quarterback Billy Napier connected with flanker Bear Rinehart on a post route for a 21-yard touchdown strike to knot the game at 17-17 at the 10:52 mark.

"Not only did we take advantage of the two turnovers, but after we got even we took over the game," added Johnson. "We didn't relinquish the momentum after we got it. We kept the pressure on them by running the football, making a couple of timely throws, and playing good defense. We kept the football away from them by making some key first downs and then coming up with some big plays on defense."

After yielding 224 yards in the first half, Furman's defense tightened the screws on Georgia Southern, recording a shutout and limiting the Eagles to only 55 yards and 20 plays over the final two quarters.

Furman missed its first chance to grab the lead after Danny Marshall failed on a 31-yard field goal attempt with 1:15 left in the third period.

The Paladins' defense, however, quickly provided another opportunity. After Bouton tackled Eagle quarterback J.R. Revere for a three-yard loss at the Georgia Southern 22, Furman used an illegal block penalty to back the Eagles up to the 12, where Scott Shelton booted a 51-yard punt to Bear Rinehart, who returned it to the Furman 44.

From that point, the Paladins turned to their veteran offensive line to advance the football down the field in methodic fashion, running 13 consecutive times and converting a pair of third downs and one fourth down play along the way. After a Napier sneak provided the Paladins a first down at the Georgia Southern 1, fullback Eric Emerson bulled over on the next play to give the Paladins a 24-17 advantage with 8:24 left.

Furman's defense then stepped up with another solid series, using a Bouton sack of Eagle quarterback J.R. Revere to force a punt.

After taking over at its 29, Furman picked up a key first down on a four-yard run by Hindley Brigham to the 39. Three Eagle timeouts and four plays later, Lee Willis punted 36 yards to the Georgia Southern 19 with 3:43 left. After a pass interference penalty on Furman advanced the ball to the 30, Paladin cornerback Richie Jackson effectively ended the game when he intercepted a Revere pass and returned it 13 yards to the Georgia Southern 42 with 2:02 remaining.

Furman outgained Georgia Southern 345-279 and outrushed the Eagles 186-184, thereby becoming the first team to outrush Georgia Southern since last year's Paladin squad piled up a 404-114 rushing differential in a 45-10 win in Greenville. Playing in the last game of his collegiate career, Georgia Southern's Adrian Peterson, the Southern Conference's all-time leading rusher, was held to a career low 68 yards on 18 carries.

Furman's Billy Napier, meanwhile, tied David Henderson's school record for consecutive completions in a game by going 12-for-12 for 159 yards and a touchdown. His favorite target was Rinehart, who caught five passes for 82 yards.

NOTING THE PALADINS

NCAA I-AA semifinal playoff action in Statesboro on Saturday halted the Eagles' I-AA record home winning streak at 39 games, which had begun early in the 1997 season. In addition, the triumph also snapped Georgia Southern's run of perfection in home playoff games, which prior to Saturday had seen the Eagles compile a 27-0 playoff mark over the years.

NOAD PLAYOFF WINS RARE IN 2001... While Furman's win over Georgia Southern in Statesboro certainly qualifies as one of the most significant road playoff wins in NCAA I-AA history, it also stands as one of only three victories registered by visiting playoff teams this year. Overall, home teams compiled an II-3 record in this year's I4 playoff games, with Maine's I4-10 win over McNeese State and Northern lowa's 49-43 triumph over Eastern Illinois representing the other two road victories other than Furman's.

▼ COMEBACK WIN NO. 2...For the second time in three playoff games this year, Furman found itself down at halftime against Georgia Southern, and like it did against Western Kentucky in a first round playoff game, the Paladins rallied for the win. Faced with a 17-7 halftime deficit after yielding a pair of late second quarter scores to the Eagles, Furman took advantage of a pair of third quarter miscues to tie the game at 17-17, and later sealed the win with excellent defensive work and a ball control ground attack that generated the decisive touchdown midway through the fourth quarter. In the Paladins' 24-20 win over Western Kentucky on Dec. I, Furman trailed the Hilltoppers by the same 17-7 score at intermission (and 20-7 early in the third quarter) before scoring the game's final 17 points for the victory. In erasing the 13-point second half deficit to Western Kentucky, Furman posted its biggest comeback since the 1996 season when the Paladins trailed Northern Arizona 21-7 in the first half (and 31-21 in the second half) before rallying for a 42-31 victory in NCAA I-AA first round playoff action in Flagstaff, Ariz.

NECOND HALF DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE...Fueling Furman's two comeback wins over the last three weeks has been some dominating second half work by the Paladin defensive unit, and that was evidenced again Saturday as the Paladins' shut out Georgia Southern and limited the Eagles to only four first downs, 55 total yards, and only 9:39 of possession over the final two quarters. Three weeks ago, in the Paladins' 24-20 first round victory over Western Kentucky, it was the Furman defense that came up big in the second half after the Paladins trailed 17-7 at halftime, limiting the Hilltoppers to only 76 total yards and three points over the final two quarters. Below is a comparison highlighting the work of Furman's defense in wins over Western Kentucky and Georgia Southern:

- STRIKING SIMILARITIES...After Furman turned the tables on Georgia Southern on Saturday following a 20-10 loss to the Eagles in Statesboro on Nov. 3, one can't help but draw comparisons to the 1988 season when the Paladins avenged a 24-10 loss regular season loss at Marshall by whipping the Thundering Herd, 13-9, in Huntington, W.Va., in NCAA I-AA quarterfinal playoff action. Beyond the revenge Furman achieved in the two games, it's worth noting that in both cases the Paladins had shared regular season titles with Marshall (1988) and Georgia Southern (2001). In 1988 Furman went on to win the national championship, beating Georgia Southern 17-12 in Pocatello, Idaho. This year, the Paladins can complete the unique double with a win over Montana in the national championship game. If that happens, Furman will finish 13-2, thereby matching the Paladins' 1988 season record.
- MAKING 'EM PAY...After making Georgia Southern pay dearly by scoring 10 quick points early in the third quarter following a pair of Eagle fumbles, it's worth noting that in three playoff games Furman has tallied 27 of their 82 points following opponent turnovers.
- ▶ BEEN THERE...Although Furman hasn't played in the NCAA I-AA national championship game since 1988, the Paladins sport some significant title game experience on its current coaching staff. For starters, quarterbacks coach Bobby Lamb (then a QB), offensive line coach Clay Hendrix (then an OG), and defensive backs coach Julius Dixon (then a CB) all played in the Paladins' 1985 national championship game against Georgia Southern (44-42 loss). Later, in 1988, Dixon, along with current Paladin defensive line coach Allen Edwards (then a NG), exacted revenge by contributing significantly in Furman's 17-12 title game win over the Eagles. Furman's national title game experience is not limited to the player perspective, however, as head coach Bobby Johnson served as the Paladins' defensive coordinator in both national championship games, and tight ends and receivers coach Ted Cain coached the squad's tight ends and receivers in 1985. In Furman's 1988 title game appearance, Hendrix and Lamb, along with current offensive coordinator Tim Sorrells and defensive coordinator Bruce Fowler, were members of the Paladin coaching staff.
- ► FURMAN AND THE BIG SKY CONFERENCE...Furman's encounter with Montana on Friday will mark only the Paladins' fifth meeting (all in NCAA I-AA playoff action) against an opponent from the Big Sky Conference. The Paladins, who are 3-1 in four previous games with schools from I-AA's western-most league, beat Nevada (35-12) in the 1985 semifinals, Idaho (38-7) in the 1988 semifinals, and Northern Arizona (42-31) in a 1996 first round game. Furman's lone defeat to a Big Sky Conference team came at the hands of Nevada (45-35 in triple overtime) in the quarterfinals of the 1990 playoffs.
- Nov. 10 of this year clinched the 2001 Southern Conference title with a 42-10 win over the Chattanooga Mocs. Furman's other two wins in Finley Stadium came in 1997 (43-21) and 1999 (40-35), with the '99 triumph also representing a conference title clinching decision for the Paladins.
- N II TITLES MOST IN SOCON HISTORY...In knocking off Chattanooga 42-10 in Chattanooga on Nov. 17, Furman claimed a share of the 2001 Southern Conference championship and, in the process, became the first school in the league's 80-year football history to win 11 conference crowns. Furman has captured league titles in 1978, '80,81, '82, '83, '85, '88, '89, '90, 99, and '01.
- LOUIS WHO?...At the Furman-Lehigh post-game press conference on Dec. 8, Paladin head coach Bobby Johnson was asked how much his team had missed injured All-America tailback Louis Ivory in the 34-17 win over the Mountain Hawks. Johnson's joking response was, 'Louis who?' Forced to go without Ivory, the program's career rushing leader (5,353 yards) who sustained a sprained medial collateral knee ligament after rushing for 170 yards in the Paladins' 24-20 win over Western Kentucky on Dec. 1, Furman employed three relatively inexperienced sophomores in his place, and the results were far better than anyone could have reasonably expected. Toreico O'Neal (Barnesville, Ga.), Hindley Brigham (Birmingham, Ala.), and Lamar Rembert (Ocala, Fla.) combined to rush for 34 times for 299 yards (8.8 ypc), and two touchdowns against Lehigh, with O'Neal leading the way (128 yards, 2 TDs), followed by Brigham (105 yards), and Rembert (66 yards). Prior to the Lehigh contest, the trio had combined to rush for only 490 yards and three touchdowns this year. Ivory's absence from the lineup ended a string of 36 consecutive starts.

- ► FURMAN'S THREE SOPRANOS SOPHOMORES, PART II...After a successful debut (34 rushes, 299 yards, 2 TDs) in a starring role in the Paladins' 24-20 win over Western Kentucky on Dec. 8, Furman's three sophomores Toreico O'Neal, Hindley Brigham, and Lamar Rembert came through with another solid performance at tailback in the Paladins' 24-17 triumph over Georgia Southern in Statesboro on Saturday, combining to rush 34 times for 130 yards and a touchdown against one of the Southern Conference's top defenses. Running behind the league's premier offensive line, the trio helped Furman again overcome the absence of Louis Ivory, who was sidelined for a second consecutive game with a sprained medial collateral knee ligament.
- Note Toreio The Prophet...During a postgame interview following the Paladins' 34-17 win over Lehigh on Dec. 8, Furman tailback Toreico O'Neal (Barnesville, Ga.) said he had dreamed the night before that he would run for 133 yards and two scores against the Mountain Hawks, and that to help his dream come true he wrote down the figures on a piece of paper and placed it his shoe prior to the game. When asked for evidence to substantiate his dream, O'Neal produced the badly wrinkled piece of paper from his shoe with the figures 133 yards, 2 TDs ─ figures almost identical to the 128 yards and two touchdowns he tallied versus Lehigh.
- ▲ AERIAL PERFECTION...In going 12-for-12 for 159 yards and a touchdown Saturday in the Paladins' 24-17 win over Georgia Southern, Furman junior All-Southern Conference quarterback Billy Napier (Chatsworth, Ga.) tied a Furman single game consecutive completions record first set by David Henderson, who completed 12 straight pass attempts in a 42-12 win over Marshall in 1978. The son of a prep football coach at Murray County (Ga.) High School, just down the road from Chattanooga, Napier has had a solid first season as the Paladins' quarterback, throwing for 2,154 yards and 13 touchdowns while sporting a strong 62.9 completion percentage and 145.24 passing efficiency rating.
- playoffs marks its third straight and fourth postseason appearance under head coach Bobby Johnson. Johnson, now in his eighth year, directed the Paladins to a 9-4 record and NCAA I-AA quarterfinal finish in 1996. In 1999 Furman returned to the postseason but dropped a first round overtime contest to defending national champion Massachusetts in Greenville, 30-23. Last year the Paladins earned another playoff bid but failed to advance past the first round after losing a 31-24 decision to Hofstra in Greenville. Furman's 24-20 win over Western Kentucky on Dec. I snapped the Paladins' string of back-to-back first round home playoff losses and marked Furman's first home playoff triumph since the 1989 tournament, when the Paladins knocked off Youngstown State, 42-23, in the quarterfinals. This year's playoff run marks the I I th time the Paladins have qualified for NCAA I-AA Tournament play (1982, '83, '85, '86, '88, '89, '90, '96, '99, '00, and '01). Furman won the 1988 national championship, defeating Georgia Southern 17-12 in Pocatello, Idaho.

► HOME-AWAY-NEUTRAL...Furman's 14-9 ledger in NCAA I-AA playoff action includes a 9-6 home record and a 4-2 road mark. The Paladins are I-I in a pair of neutral site playoff clashes (both against Georgia Southern in national championship games).

SOCON RULES SUPREME IN NCAA I-AA PLAYOFFS...Eight Southern Conference teams have combined to post a league best 66-37 record (.641) in NCAA I-AA playoff competition since the conference was reclassified to I-AA in 1982. Though three league teams (Furman, Georgia Southern, & Appalachian State) were among the 16 schools selected to this year's playoffs, Georgia Southern and Appalachian State were eliminated from the playoffs by conference foes (Appalachian State, 38-24, by Georgia Southern, and Georgia Southern, 24-17, by Furman). Overall the league has placed a team in the championship game four straight years and owns five national championships — tops among NCAA I-AA conferences.

▼ RECORD 16 PALADINS NAMED ALL-SOCON...Furman's 16 All-Southern Conference selections by the media this year represent the Paladins' biggest all-conference postseason contingent since the media began naming an all-conference team in 1953. In addition to the Paladin allleague honorees (listed on page I of this release), Furman also swept all three major player awards as senior tailback Louis Ivory (Fort Valley, Ga.) captured offensive player-of-the-year honors for the second straight year. Likewise, senior linebacker Will Bouton (Greenville, S.C.) garnered defensive player-of-the-year accolades for the second consecutive season, and receiver/return specialist Brian Bratton (Martinez, Ga.) took home league freshman-of-the-year honors. In voting by the coaches, Furman offensive tackle Donnie Littlejohn (Gaffney, S.C.) was named this year's recipient of the Jacobs Blocking Award. Ivory's selection marked the eighth time a Furman player had been named league offensive player-of-the-year; Bouton, meanwhile, became the eighth Furman conference defensive player-of-the-year selection since the award was created in 1986; and Bratton became the second Furman player (Stanford Jennings, '81) to be named freshman-of-the-year. Littlejohn's selection as winner of the Jacobs Blocking Award marked the third straight year and I Ith time overall a Paladin had captured the honor.

▼ PALADIN OFFENSIVE LINE AMONG BEST IN NCAA I-

AA...Based on what Furman's offensive line has helped the Paladins accomplish the last three years and the individual honors accorded virtually every member of the unit, Furman's offensive front can rightfully be considered one of the best and most experienced in NCAA I-AA. The cast of five regulars includes a pair of All-Americans in center Chris Stewart (Palm Harbor, Fla.) and Marty Priore (Cincinnati, Ohio), and All-All-America/Jacobs Blocking Award winning left tackle Donnie Littlejohn (Gaffney, S.C.). In addition, junior right guard Trevor Kruger (Moultrie, Ga.), who started every game a year ago, is about to complete his second year as a starter, and Steven Cain (Anderson, S.C.) his first. If also considering senior all-conference tight end Trent Sansbury (Lilburn, Ga.) with the offensive front, the Paladins boast a combined total of 270 games played and 210 starts in their collective careers.

NUSCLE MAN...Playing a key role in the strong work of Furman's offensive line is the unit's impressive physical strength as reflected in some of the numbers posted by unit members in team weight lifting tests. Leading the way for the third consecutive year is senior center Chris Stewart, Furman's strongest player. In testing last spring, Stewart bench pressed 505 pounds, squatted 650 pounds, and power cleaned 347 pounds for a combined lift of 1,502 pounds in three exercises.

➤ SUPER LINEBACKERS...While Furman has gotten stellar play from its defensive line and secondary, one can't deny the contribution made by the Paladin linebacking corps, which certainly ranks as one of the best in NCAA I-AA football. The unit is led by senior All-America and 2000 and 2001 Southern Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year Will Bouton (Greenville, S.C.), who has now started in a school career record 49 consecutive games and totaled 504 tackles, good for fourth all-time at Furman. In the Paladins' three playoff games, Bouton has come up huge wiith 31 tackles, 11 tackles-for-loss, five sacks, a forced fumble, and a fumble recovery. Senior John Thrift (Hartwell, Ga.), a second team allconference pick this fall, has also played in 49 games (40 starts) and is the owner of 332 tackles. And senior Sterling Frierson (Woodrow, S.C.) has been solid in his first full season as starter, totaling 78 tackles, eight tackles-for-loss, two fumble recoveries, and a forced fumble. One newcomer to the linebacking corps who has already made a mark for himself is redshirt freshman Cedrick Ritter (Fairfax, S.C.), who has registered 54 tackles, four tackles-for-loss, a pair of sacks, two interceptions, and a blocked punt this year. All told, heading into Saturday's game against Georgia Southern, Furman's current starting linebacking corps (Bouton, Thrift, Frierson) counts 139 games and 103 starts among them, as well as 979 tackles in their combined careers.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT FURMAN LINEBACKER WILL BOUTON...The following are quotes from Western Kentucky head coach Jack Harbaugh and Lehigh head coach Pete Lembo on the play of Furman senior linebacker Will Bouton following the Paladins' recent 24-20 win over the Hilltoppers and 34-17 triumph over the Mountain Hawks, respectively.

"I know things were very difficult for us on offense. That's because of the outstanding defense that they played. We've blocked a lot of people, but Bouton always seemed to be where he had to be. What a great athlete he is. The things they (Furman) did defensively allowed them to free their middle linebacker, and that's why Bouton is as successful as he is. The adjustments they made allowed him to run from sideline to sideline, and he was able to do it. A lot of times, you ask a middle linebacker to run from sideline to sideline, and he either runs out of gas or isn't athletic enough to do it, but Bouton didn't run out of gas."

Jack Harbaugh, Western Kentucky

"I think (Will) Bouton lived up to his billing. He's an all-conference guy, and I think he played that way today, in particular running from sideline to sideline, and when he came on blitzes."

Pete Lembo, Lehigh

- WHE PLAYS AS WELL AS HE SINGS...Called a "Renaissance Man" by Furman head coach Bobby Johnson, senior All-Southern Conference strong safety Shelvis Smith (College Park, Ga.), who in growing up sang with the Atlanta Boys Choir and who now performs with Furman's Bell Tower Boys and Furman Gospel Singers, is fashioning a strong 2001 football campaign for the Paladins. A team co-captain who currently ranks second on the squad in tackles with 102 stops, Smith has registered two interceptions, seven pass deflections, 10 tackles-for-loss, a sack, and blocked punt this season in pacing a fine Paladin secondary. Furman's strongest performer in the weight room, Smith last spring posted a combined lift of 1,288 pounds in three exercises: bench press (480), squat (500), and power clean (308). In January and February of this year, Smith and teammate Brad Byars (Greenwood, S.C.), the Paladins' long snapper, took part in a Furman foreign study program that took them to Italy, Greece, and Turkey.
- NOUR GRIZZLY...Although there are dozens of receivers out there who catch more passes, one would be hard pressed to find many any better than Furman junior all-conference performer Bear Rinehart (Seneca, S.C.), and that was evidence once again in the Paladins' 24-17 win over Georgia Southern on Saturday when he caught five passes for 82 yards and a touchdown, which went 21 yards. He currently ranks first on the team in receptions (45), receiving yards (700), and touchdowns (7). Not only a fine receiver, Rinehart, an accomplished guitar player and singer/songwriter and member of band called "Needtobreathe," also handles the Paladins' punt returns (7.2 avg.) In case you are wondering, Bear is named for legendary Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant.

- SANSBURY STARS...The tandem work turned in by junior All-Southern Conference quarterback Billy Napier (Chatsworth, Ga.) and senior all-league tight end Trent Sansbury (Lilburn, Ga.) this season represents the best utilization of the tight end position by Furman since 1996 when quarterback Braniff Bonaventure frequently included Luther Broughton (52 receptions, 583 yards) in the Furman passing game. Heading into the national championship game against Montana, Sansbury, who was invited to this year's Blue-Gray All-Star Football Classic on Christmas Day, has 41 catches for 578 yards and two touchdowns. A year ago Sansbury caught only 14 passes for 276 yards and two scores. An excellent student, he owns a 3.30 grade point average in computing business.
- THE PARKVIEW CONNECTION...Furman senior starting tight end Trent Sansbury and his backup, true freshman Willis Sudderth, are both products of Lilburn, Ga., and Parkview High School.
- ➤ SPECIAL COMPANY...In posting its third straight 9-2 regular season finish this year, the 2001 Paladins became only the 12th squad in Furman's now 96-season football history to win at least nine regular season games. It's worth noting that head coach Bobby Johnson has had a hand in nine of those 12 squad in the capacities of defensive backs coach, defensive coordinator, and head coach.

► ELITE COMPANY...By defeating Western Kentucky 24-20 on Dec. I, the 2001 Paladins became only the sixth squad in school history to win at least 10 games in a season, and once again it's noteworthy that current head coach Bobby Johnson has played a significant role in five of those six teams. In defeating Georgia Southern 24-17 on Saturday, Furman garnered its 12th win of the season — a plateau only three other squads in school history have achieved.

PERFECT AT HOME IN 2001...Furman's win over Lehigh gave the Paladins a perfect 8-0 home record, thereby marking only the second time in program history that Furman has gone 8-0 at home in a season. The only other time it has happened was in 1988, when the Paladins fashioned an 8-0 home slate on the way to the NCAA I-AA national championship. Furman's only other eight-win home campaign came in 1989 (8-1).

► FURMAN STREAKING AT HOME VERSUS SOCON...In beating Wofford 45-14 on Nov. 10, Furman extended a school record for consecutive home wins (13) against Southern Conference opposition. The previous standard was 11 set during a stretch from 1987-90.

► FURMAN LIMITING/MAKING THE BIG PLAY...A big barometer of Furman's success this year has been the Paladins' ability to limit big plays by the opposition and, on the flip side, make big plays on offense, defense, and special teams as the charts below reveal:

Johnson has a pair of interceptions to go along with 51 tackles and seven pass deflections. An excellent student, Johnson sports a 3.47 grade point average in health and exercise science.

▶ JACKSON ON FURMAN INTERCEPTION CHART...Furman senior All-Southern Conference cornerback Richie Jackson (Cincinnati, Ohio) heads into Friday's game against Montana ranked second on the school career interceptions ledger. Jackson recorded his 17th career pickoff the Paladins' 24-17 win over Georgia Southern on Saturday.

FURMAN "SPECIAL" TEAMS LIVING UP TO NAME...Paced by Southern Conference Freshman-of-the-Year Brian Bratton (Martinez, Ga.), the nation's kickoff returns leader (37.2 avg., 3 TDs in regular season), Furman's special teams have recorded four kickoff returns for touchdowns and five blocked punts this season. Bratton's three kickoff returns for scores this fall include a pair of 100-yard efforts against Appalachian State and Wofford, and a 91-yard bolt against VMI. His 100-yard return against Wofford was profiled on ESPN's "Hidden Camera" segment during halftime of a recent East Carolina-Louisville Thursday night telecast. Bratton's three returns for touchdowns ties former Paladin great Des Kitchings' 1999 season record for most kickoff return touchdowns in a season.

■ MARSHALL ENTERS THE RECORD BOOKS...When sophomore All-Southern Conference placekicker Danny Marshall (Atlanta, Ga.) connected on a 27-yard field goal in the first quarter in the Paladins' 30-7 win over The Citadel on Oct. 13, it gave him the Furman record for most consecutive made field goals (11). Marshall's streak, which eclipsed the previous record set by Andrew Burr in 1991, reached 12 straight with a 20-yard effort in the Paladins' 31-6 win over East Tennessee State before ending when he later missed a 47-yard attempt against the Buccaneers. The run included made field goals in his last five attempts a year ago and first seven tries this year. On the season, Marshall has converted 13-of-16 field goal attempts (and 19 of his last 22 attempts if going back into the 2000 campaign). For his career, Marshall is 27-of-34 in field goal tries (.794) and 102-of-108 on PATs (.944). His 183 points ranks fifth all-time at Furman in kick scoring.

▼ IVORY CLAIMS SECOND STRAIGHT SOCON RUSHING CROWN...In rushing for 176 yards and four touchdowns in the Paladins' 47-28 win over Presbyterian, senior tailback Louis Ivory (Fort Valley, Ga.), the 2000 Walter Payton Award recipient, claimed his second straight Southern Conference rushing title, finishing with 1,492 yards. Ivory also placed first in scoring (114 points) and all-purpose yardage (1,572 yards). His performance against PC gave him a regular season career rushing total of 5,353 yards — the second highest total in league history.

LOUIS IVORY: "THE IVORY TOWER"...Senior tailback Louis Ivory, a consensus All-America choice, two-time Southern Conference Offensive Player-of-the-Year, and NCAA I-AA football's Walter Payton Award recipient for the 2000 season, is nicknamed "The Ivory Tower", in part, because of his prodigious accomplishments last year. Ivory's nickname also works because the most notable landmark on Furman's campus is an ivory bell tower that overlooks the university's scenic 30-acre lake. The tower, which first gained notoriety as an ivy covered landmark on Furman's old campus in downtown Greenville, has gained new fame thanks, in part, to Ivory, whose biographical sketch is included

lvory, whose biographical

LOUIS IVORY TB, 5-9, 200, Senior Fort Valley, Georgia Peach County High School

Furman: Pleasantly personable young man and outstanding, consensus All-America performer who returned for the 2001 season as the top offensive player in NCAA I-AA football based on his selection as the Walter Payton Award recipient a year ago...in three-plus seasons of play has already shattered several school and Southern Conference single game and season rushing records...was a lightly recruited fullback out of high school who played fullback his freshman year at Furman before moving to tailback prior to the start of the 1999 season...in 36 consecutive starts from 1999-2001, topped the 100-yard mark in 30 games on the way to 5,432 yards (150.9 ypg) and 51 touchdowns, helping Furman to a 28-8 record in that span...consecutive starts streak stopped against Lehigh due to injury (sprained medial collateral ligament in left knee) sustained in 24-20 win over Western Kentucky on Dec. I...became Furman's all-time leading rusher in the Paladins' 30-7 win over The Citadel on Oct. 13 by rushing 29 times for 131 yards and a touchdown, thereby eclipsing Carl Tremble previous standard of 4,746 yards...current career rushing total (including two playoff games) is 5,838 yards...minus playoff games his rushing total is 5,353 yards...brokeTremble's school record of 25 100-yard rushing performances in a career by rushing for 146 yards and a touchdown in the Paladins' 31-6 win over East Tennessee State on Oct. 20...counting 170-yard effort versus Western Kentucky, now has 31 100-yard rushing performances...became the all-time leading scorer (306 points) in Furman history with touchdown versus Chattanooga, breaking Tremble's standard of 300 points...counting four TDs against Presbyterian on Nov. 24, now has 330 points...owns the first, fourth, sixth, eighth, 10th, and 11th best single game rushing performances in Furman football history...compact, strong, runner who sports solid balance, tackle breaking ability, and impressive durability...likes to run north-south but can employ finesse when needed...possesses excellent leadership ability...highly respected by the coaching staff and teammates for his work ethic and overall mental and physical approach to the game...very coachable...could finish his career as one of the most decorated student-athletes in Furman athletics history...ranked third on team in spring weight testing with combined lift of 1,253 pounds in three exercises: bench press (365), squat (525), Wyoming...touchdown run covered 44 yards and tied the game at 14-14 in the third quarter...ran 19 times for 126 yards and two touchdowns against Elon (46-7 win)...exited the game for good after scoring on an 8-yard run on Furman's first offensive series of the second half and with the Paladins leading 37-7...notched his ninth straight 100-yard performance with a 10-carry, 100-yard outing in the Paladins' 65-7 rout of VMI...exited the game in favor of reserves with 6:27 to go in the first half and Furman leading 31-0...scored the game's first touchdown for his 40th career rushing touchdown....registered a season high 22 carries for another season high 159 yards and two touchdowns in a 31-13 win at Western Carolina...reeled off 105 of his 159 yards and both touchdowns in the first quarter against the Catamounts...one of his scores covered 67 yards, making it the fourth longest run of his career...performance against Western Carolina earned him Southern Conference Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors...rushed 18 times for only 40 yards and one touchdown in 28-22 win over nationally fifth-ranked Appalachian State...40 yards were lowest total in 31 starts at tailback and lowest since 1998, his freshman year...40-yard effort against ASU snapped his school record string of 10 straight 100-yard performances...lone touchdown against Appalachian State covered 18 yards and included a bruising hit on Mountaineer defensive back Du'Shon Martin at the goal line...bounced back from Appalachian State game with 29-carry, 131-yard, one-touchdown performance against The Citadel (30-7 win) that helped him surpass Carl Tremble (4,746 yards) as Furman's all-time leading rusher...29 rushes versus The Citadel represented a personal season high...ran 22 times for 146 yards and a touchdown to help Furman past East Tennessee State, 31-6...performance against ETSU helped him become the first running back in school history to top 5,000 career rushing yards...ran 23 times for 122 yards and a touchdown in 20-10 loss to Georgia Southern...touchdown versus Georgia Southern covered 23 yards on a draw play that tied game 7-7 late in second quarter....fashioned his finest performance of the 2001 season by rushing 23 times for 198 yards and career high four touchdowns in 45-14 win over Wofford...touchdown runs covered 13, 7, 17, and 8 yards..scored Furman's first three touchdowns, helping stake the Paladins to a 21-0 lead only four minutes into the second quarter...had 184 yards by halftime...did not play in the fourth quarter...performance versus Wofford put him over the 1,000-yard mark (1,158) for the the third consecutive year, tying a Furman mark for most consecutive 1,000-yard seasons first set by Stanford Jennings (1981-83)...shattered Carl Tremble's career rushing touchdowns record of 48TDs...became only the third player in SoCon history to top 5,000 career rushing yards...rushed 28 times for 158 yards and a touchdown in 42-10 win over Chattanooga...scored team's first touchdown of the game with 27-yard run in first quarter to become Furman's all-time scoring leader with 306 points, thereby breaking the old standard of 300 previously held by Carl Tremble....finished off the regular season by rushing a season high 34 times for 176 yards and four touchdowns in 47-28 win over Presbyterian for the 30th 100-yard rushing performance of his career...claimed his second straight Southern Conference rushing title with 1,492 yards in 11 games...also led the league in touchdowns (19) and finished first in total offense among league running backs, as well as all-purpose yards (1,572)...regular season rushing total was the fifth highest single season rushing total ever recorded by a college football player in South Carolina...helped power Furman past Western Kentucky in NCAA I-AA first round playoff action by rushing 33 times for 170 yards before sustaining a sprained medial collateral ligament in his left knee late in the fourth quarter...injury was the first to sideline him and cost him a start since his freshman year (1998)...failed to score a touchdown against Western Kentucky for first time this year, halting a streak of 13 consecutive contests with a touchdown. 2000 — Fashioned the greatest single season rushing performance and one of the most productive offensive seasons in Furman, Southern Conference, state of South Carolina, and NCAA I-AA football history by rushing 286 times for 2,079 yards, and 16 touchdowns during the regular season in helping the Paladins to a 9-3 record, No. 10 Sports Network final ranking, and second straight playoff appearance...averaged an incredible 7.3 yards per carry...rushing total represented the first 2,000-yard season in the Southern Conference's 78year history and in the 112-year history of football in South Carolina...189.0 yards per game rushing average led the nation and his closest competitor in NCAA I-AA, Portland State's Charles Dunn (163.0 ypg), by a wide margin...among all ballcarriers in all divisions, was only outrushed by Texas Christian's LaDainian Tomlinson, who totaled 2,158 yards and averaged 196.0 ypg in 11 games...season rushing total was fifth best in NCAA I-AA football history and eighth best in season average...captured the Walter Payton Award, given annually by the Sports Network to the top offensive player in NCAA I-AA football, in ceremonies at New York City's famed Downtown Athletic Club on Dec. 4...became a consensus All-America honoree when he was named to national squads selected by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Sports Network, Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation, and Don Hansen's Football Gazette...recipient of 2000 Banks McFadden South Carolina Player-of-the-Year Award (as voted by the Greenville Touchdown Club) and 2000 South Carolina Male Amateur Athlete-of-the-Year Award (as selected by the South Carolina Athletic Hall-of-Fame)...was also honored as 2000-01 Furman Male Athleteof-the-Year and became the eighth athlete in school history to garner Southern Conference Athlete-of-the-Year accolades when he was accorded the honor in Myrtle Beach in late May...had January 23, 2001, proclaimed "Louis Ivory Day In South Carolina" by governor Jim Hodges in ceremonies at the state capitol in Columbia...including one playoff game, totaled 2,251 yards and 18 touchdowns on the 2000 season, rushing for more than 100 yards in 11 of Furman's 12 games...became the 13th Southern Conference Player-of-the-Year selection in Furman history when he was a consensus choice in separate balloting by league head coaches and media...recorded five scoring runs greater than 50 yards: 88 vs.William & Mary, 75 vs. Elon, 73 vs. Georgia Southern, 65 vs. Western Carolina, and 58 vs. The Citadel...88-yard run was the second longest in Furman history...spearheaded a Paladin ground attack that averaged a school season record 307.5 rushing yards per game...individual rushing total topped Furman's previous season standard of 1,555 yards set by Carl Tremble (1992)...rushed for a school single game record 301 yards and three touchdowns in a 45-10 win over top-ranked, defending, and eventual national champion Georgia Southern in Greenville...301-yard performance versus Georgia Southern, which earned him Sports Network National Offensive Player-of-the-Week honors, shattered Furman's single game standard of 261 yards set by Mike Glenn against Presbyterian in 1980 and the conference single game record of 286 yards set by The Citadel's Gene Brown versus VMI in 1988...it also represented the highest rushing total ever posted by a Georgia Southern opponent and keyed a 404-yard Furman rushing performance against the Eagles that snapped a string of 53 consecutive games in which Georgia Southern had outrushed its opponent...in all topped the 200-yard mark in five games: 301 vs. Georgia Southern (45-10 win), 232 vs. William & Mary (34-10 win), 227 vs. East Tennessee State (23-21 loss), 214 vs. The Citadel (33-7 win), and 207 vs. Chattanooga (45-44 OT win)...established a new Furman single game rushing attempts record with 41 carries against East Tennessee State...became the fastest player (seven games) in Furman history to reach 1,000 rushing yards when he rushed for 214 yards against The Citadel...averaged 214.3 ypg over Furman's final six contests...in all was named Southern Conference Offensive Player-ofthe-Week four times...took home Furman's Best Offensive Back and Paladin (MVP) Award following the season. 1999 - GAME I

Wyoming 20, Furman 14

September I, 2001

War Memorial Stadium

Attendance: 14,167

LARAMIE, WY. -- Jarvis Wallum booted four field goals, including two in the second half, to lift the Wyoming Cowboys to a 20-14 season opening win over the visiting Furman Paladins in front of 14,167 fans at War Memorial Stadium.

In posting the victory, Wyoming, an NCAA I-A member of the Mountain West Conference, snapped an eight-game losing streak dating back to the 2000 season. The loss was the second for NCAA I-AA sixth-ranked Furman in its last three season openers.

Trailing 14-7 at halftime, Furman tied the score at 14-14 when tailback Louis Ivory, the reigning Walter Payton Award winner in NCAA I-AA, broke loose on a 44-yard touchdown run with 3:23 left in the third quarter. Wyoming, however, answered on its next possession by moving 75 yards in 10 plays to set up Wallum's third field goal of the game, from 22 yards out, to give the Cowboys a 17-14 advantage with less than a minute remaining in the third period.

Wallum added his fourth field goal, a 28-yarder with 10:00 to go in the contest, to stretch the Cowboys' lead to 20-14.

On the ensuing possession, Furman drove from its 35 to the Wyoming 7, where on a third and four play Paladin wide receiver Bear Rinehart was tackled for a three-yard loss on a reverse. Instead of kicking the field goal, Furman went for a touchdown, but quarterback Billy Napier's pass to a slanting and open Rinehart in the end zone was low and incomplete.

Taking over possession with 6:10 remaining, Wyoming ground up the game clock by moving 73 yards in 12 plays to the Furman 17, where Wallum missed a 34-yard field goal attempt with only 17 seconds left in the game.

The Cowboys, who racked up 87 offensive plays to Furman's 58, amassed 422 yards in offense in the contest and were paced by sophomore quarterback Casey Bramlet, who completed 30-of-48 passes for 331 yards. Bramlet, who scored Wyoming's lone touchdown of the game on a 1-yard run in the second quarter to give the Cowboys a 14-7 lead, connected with sophomore wide receiver Ryan McGuffey on 10 passes for 134 yards.

Furman was paced offensively by Ivory, who rushed 19 times for 136 yards and one touchdown. Furman netted 349 yards in offense, including 169 from quarterback Billy Napier, who completed 12-of-24 passes in the contest, but the Paladins suffered two turnovers, including a fumble at the Cowboy 38 and an interception that led to a Wyoming field goal. Bear Rinehart paced all Paladin receivers with four receptions for 97 yards.

Furman 46, Elon 7

September 8, 2001

Paladin Stadium Attendance: 10,322

GREENVILLE -- Louis Ivory rushed for 126 yards and two touchdowns to lead the NCAA I-AA nationally sixth-ranked Furman Paladins to a 46-7 win over the visiting Elon Phoenix at Paladin Stadium.

Ivory rushed 19 times and scored on runs of 2 and 8 yards while recording his eighth straight 100-yard performance and 22nd 100-yard outing of his career.

The win gave Furman (I-I) its 99th victory in Paladin Stadium since moving into the facility in 1981. It also marked the Paladins' second straight decision over Elon (0-2), which committed six turnovers.

Furman outgained Élon 452-180 and got a strong performance from junior quarterback Billy Napier, who connected on 12-of-19 passes for 192 yards and two touchdowns. Tight end Trent Sansbury led all Paladin receivers with five catches for 86 yards and a score.

Furman took advantage of a pair of Elon turnovers in the first quarter to race to a 21-0 lead.

An interception and 23-yard return by Shelvis Smith gave the Paladins the ball at Elon 19, and four plays later Napier hit Bear Rinehart on an 8-yard scoring strike to put Furman up 7-0 only three minutes into the game.

On its next possession, Furman moved 58 yards in nine plays to extend its lead to 14-0 following a 2-yard run by Ivory at the 4:53 mark.

A fumble recovery by Paladin defensive tackle LeBryan Sperling at the Elon 42 on the Phoenix's next possession set up another Furman score, which came on the next play when Napier connected with Sansbury on a 42-yard touchdown at the 1:53 juncture.

Elon trimmed Furman's lead to 21-7 with an 11-yard touchdown run by Martin Swindell with 10:38 left in the first half, but the Paladins answered with three Danny Marshall field goals covering 22,33, and 28 yards to extend the lead to 30-7 by halftime.

Furman upped its margin to 37-7 on its first possession of the second half with an 8-yard scoring run by Ivory before benching its first team offense and defense in favor of reserves.

Reserve tailback Hindley Brigham tallied the Paladins' last score on a 65-yard touchdown run on the first rushing attempt of his career.

Furman 65,VMI 7

September 22, 2001

Paladin Stadium Attendance: 10,152

GREENVILLE -- Josh Cooper's 85-yard fumble return for a touchdown keyed a 24-point second quarter outburst and helped lead NCAA I-AA nationally fourth-ranked Furman to a 65-7 rout of VMI.

The win, Furman's 20th straight over the Keydets, marked Furman's 100th victory in Paladin Stadium history, and the 65 points were the most since 1935. The triumph was also the Paladins' 10th consecutive home victory against Southern Conference opposition.

With Furman leading 14-0, Cooper picked up a fumble by VMI's Pedro Garcia at the Furman 15 and raced untouched 85 yards for the touchdown to put the Paladins ahead 21-0 at the 14:15 mark of the second quarter.

An interception by Rodney Johnson on VMI's next possession led to 26-yard field goal by Danny Marshall that extended the lead to 24-0.

A blocked punt by Shelvis Smith at the Furman 43 led to the Paladins' next score. After quarterback Billy Napier connected on a 41-yard pass to tight end Trent Sansbury to the Keydet 16, Louis Ivory ripped off a 13-yard run to the 3, and Napier completed the 3-play, 57-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run to make it 31-0 with 6:27 left in the half.

Furman capped its 24-point second period explosion with an 11-play, 69-yard drive that ended when backup tailback Toreico O'Neal scored on a 2-yard run of the last play of the first half to make it 38-0

A 91-yard kickoff return by Brian Bratton to open the second half made it 45-0, and the Paladins later added a second kickoff return for a touchdown when Lamar Rembert bolted 79 yards following VMI's only score of the game to give Furman a 58-7 advantage.

Furman, which outgained VMI 435-223, got 100 yards on 10 carries and a touchdown from All-America tailback Louis Ivory, who exited the game midway through the second period in favor of reserves. For Ivory, the 100-yard performance was his ninth straight and the 23rd of his career. Reserve tailback Hindley Brigham paced all Paladin rushers with eight carries for 106 yards and a touchdown.

Furman 31, Western Carolina 13

September 29, 2001

E.J. Whitmire Stadium Attendance: 8,714

CULLOWHEE, N.C.-- Louis Ivory rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns to lead NCAA I-AA fourth-ranked Furman to a 31-13 Southern Conference win over Western Carolina.

lvory scored on runs of 3 and 67 yards to help stake Furman to a 21-0 first quarter lead. The 158-yard effort, his 10th straight 100-yard performance and 24th century rushing outing of his career, upped his career rushing total to 4,697 yards, leaving him just 49 yards shy of Carl Tremble's school career rushing standard.

Furman, which scored on its first four possessions of the game, took a 7-0 lead on a 3-yard run by freshman fullback Eric Emerson that capped a 5-play, 55-yard drive.

On Western Carolina's second possession, Paul Billingsly recorded Furman's third blocked punt in its last two games and recovered it at the Catamount 15-yard line. Three plays later Ivory bulled over from three yards out with 5:55 left in the first quarter to give the Paladins a 14-0 lead.

Furman struck for its third touchdown with only seconds left in the opening period when Ivory took a handoff from quarterback Billy Napier and bolted 67 yards to give the Paladins a 21-0 advantage.

A 20-play, 80-yard drive put Western Carolina on the board with a 2-yard touchdown run by Donnie Bryant at the 5:10 juncture of the second quarter, but Furman answered with another impressive scoring drive under the direction of true freshman quarterback Bo Moore, who came off the bench for a shaken up Napier.

Using a 26-yard run by Lamer Rembert and a key third down, I3-yard pass to James Thomas for a first down, Moore moved the Paladins 77 yards in nine plays and connected with Bear Rinehart on a 22-yard strike with only 45 seconds remaining in the first half to make it 28-7.

Napier, who returned to the field on Furman's first possession of the second half, set up the Paladins' final score of the contest when he hooked up with James Thomas on a 41-yard pass to the Catamount 8-yard line midway through the fourth quarter. Three plays later Danny Marshall booted his school record tying 10th straight field goal to give Furman a 31-7 lead.

Paced by senior linebacker John Thrift's two quarterback takedowns, Furman's defense registered four sacks in the contest. Senior All-America linebacker Will Bouton, the 2000 Southern Conference Defensive Player-of-the-Year, led all Paladin tacklers with nine stops.

Furman 28, Appalachian State 22

October 6, 2001

Paladin Stadium Attendance: 14,411

GREENVILLE — Billy Napier passed for 159 yards and two touchdowns to lift NCAA I-AA third-ranked Furman to a 28-22 win over fifthranked Appalachian State in front of 14,411 fans at Paladin Stadium.

Napier completed 9-of-15 passes and connected with freshman flanker Isaac West for both scores in the second half on plays covering 39 and 30 yards. West had six pass receptions for 120 yards and five punt returns for

The win was the third straight by Furman over Appalachian State in Greenville and the 11th consecutive league home win for the Paladins.

Appalachian State, which tallied 81 offensive snaps to Furman's 45, outgained the Paladins 222-194 in total offense, but the Mountaineers managed only 2.7 yards per snap to Furman's 4.3

All-America tailback Louis Ivory, who came into the game 50 yards shy of Furman's career rushing record, was held to 40 yards on 18 carries, but Ivory's 18-yard touchdown run with 4:17 left in the first half put the Paladins ahead for good at 14-7.

The Paladins raced to a 7-0 lead on the game's first play when Brian Bratton took the opening kickoff and sprinted 100 yards for a touchdown.

Appalachian State's Jerry Beard tied the game at 7-7 with a 13-yard run with 13:51 left in the second quarter.

Leading 14-7 at the half, Furman linebacker Will Bouton pounced on an Appalachian State fumble at the Mountaineer 39-yard line, and on the next play Napier hit a streaking West for a 39-yard touchdown strike to stretch the Paladin advantage to 21-7 at the 4:43 mark of the third period.

The Mountaineers made it 21-14 on a Joey Hoover 1-yard touchdown run with 11:14 left in the game, but two possessions later a 17-yard punt return by West to the Appalachian State 30 set up the Paladins' final score, which came one play later when Napier found West behind the Mountaineer secondary for a 30-yard touchdown pass with 7:46 left.

After Furman's Richie Jackson intercepted a Joe Burchette pass at the Paladin I-yard line, Furman punter Lee Willis ran out of the end zone for a safety to make it 28-16 with 3:13 left.

Appalachian State regained possession at the Furman 43 on the ensusing kickoff, and eight plays later Burchette connected with Jose White on a 3yard touchdown pass to make it 28-22 with 1:26 remaining. Appalachian State's onside kick, however, was recovered by Furman's James Thomas at the 50-yard line, allowing the Paladins to run out the game clock.

GAME 6

Furman 30, The Citadel 7

October 13, 2001

Johnson Hagood Stadium Attendance: 16,982

CHARLESTON, S.C. -- Louis Ivory rushed 29 times for 131 yards and a touchdown en route to setting Furman's all-time rushing record in the Paladins' 30-7 victory over The Citadel in front of 16,982 fans at Johnson Hagood Stadium.

. Ivory, the 2000 Walter Payton Award winner as the top offensive player in NCAA I-AA football, pushed his career rushing total to 4,868 yards, eclipsing Carl Tremble's record of 4,746 yards. The Furman senior also registered the 25th 100-yard rushing performance of his career to tie the school standard for most career 100-yard games.

Furman got the ball rolling early and never looked back as the Paladins scored at the 6:23 mark in the first quarter when freshman fullback Eric Emerson rumbled 11 yards for a touchdown. The run capped a 12-play, 59yard drive that lasted 5:57.

Furman's offense then capitalized on the strong play of its defense as sophomore placekicker Danny Marshall converted a 27-yard field goal his school record 11th straight — at the 1:49 mark in the first quarter to give the Paladins a 10-0 lead.

The Paladins struck for two more scores late in the second quarter when Ivory finished off a seven-play, 51-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run and quarterback Billy Napier connected with flanker Bear Rinehart on a 24-yard touchdown pass to take a 23-0 advantage into half-

The Citadel seized momentum on the first play of the second half when James Greene recovered a fumble after the Bulldogs' T.I. Rose sacked Napier at the Furman 24-yard line. Two plays later Nate Mahoney jaunted 13 yards for the touchdown to slice the Furman lead to 23-7. The Paladins' defense, however, dashed any Bulldog comeback bid by halting the Bulldogs on their next two possesions, which ended on downs and with an interception by strong safety Shelvis Smith.

Furman freshman fullback Al Means ran 10 yards with 4:52 left in the game to account for the Paladins' final score of the contest

Napier helped lead the Paladins, completing 9-of-18 passes for 133 yards and a touchdown, and rushed 12 times for 58 yards. Rinehart paced the Furman receiving corps with five receptions for 82 yards and a score. The Paladins also received a strong effort from senior linebacker John Thrift, who led the team with 11 tackles, two tackles-for-loss, a fumble recovery, and a sack. Senior strong safety Shelvis Smith posted nine stops, which included two for a loss of 12 yards, a sack, and an interception.

The win was Furman's third straight and sixth triumph in the last seven meetings with the Bulldogs.

Furman 31, East Tennessee State 6

October 20, 2001

Paladin Stadium Attendance: 11,009

GREENVILLE -- Louis Ivory rushed for 146 yards and a touchdown to lift NCAA I-AA third ranked Furman to a 31-6 Southern Conference win over East Tennessee State in front of 11,009 homecoming fans at Paladin Stadium.

In posting the win Furman claimed its school record 12th straight conference home victory but only the second decision in its last six meetings with East Tennessee State.

In rushing 26 times for 146 yards, Ivory, the 2000 Walter Payton Award winner, recorded his school record 26th 100-yard rushing performance and became the first Furman player in history to top 5,000 rushing yards in a career. The Paladin senior tailback now has 5,014 yards.

Furman took an early 7-0 lead after Hindley Brigham blocked an East Tennessee State punt out of bounds at the Buccaneer 7. Two plays later Ivory ran seven yards for the score at the 10:34 mark of the first quarter.

After East Tennessee State cut the Paladin advantage to 7-3 on a Scott Salmons 37-yard field goal, Furman moved 69 yards in 11 plays for its second touchdown, which came on a 1-yard run by fullback Eric Emerson at the 12:58 juncture of the second quarter.

Leading 14-6 at intermission, Furman capitalized with good field position in the third quarter to add to its advantage. A 16-yard punt return by Bear Rinehart to the Buccaneer 41 set up a six-play drive that ended when Emerson registered his second score of the contest with a 5-yard run off left tackle to make it 24-6 with 5:14 remaining the third quarter.

The Paladins added a 5-yard touchdown run by backup fullback Al Means late in the fourth quarter to close out the scoring.

Furman, which outgained East Tennessee State 364-199, got 166 yards passing from junior quarterback Billy Napier, who completed 15-of-23 passes. His favorite target was Rinehart, who totaled six receptions for 74 yards while also totaling 47 yards on four punt returns.

With starting nose guard Ryan Spencer and tackle LeBryan Sperling out with injuries, Furman's defense was paced by strong safety Shelvis Smith's seven tackles, including two for loss.

Furman placekicker Danny Marshall, who converted a school record 12th straight field goal attempt in the second quarter, had the streak stopped when he missed a 47-yard attempt late in the second period..

GAME 8

Georgia Southern 20, Furman 10

November 3, 2001

Paulson Stadium Attendance: 21,593

STATESBORO, GA. -- Quarterback J.R. Revere totaled 130 yards in offense and scored two touchdowns to lift NCAA I-AA fourth-ranked Georgia Southern to a 20-10 win over the second-ranked Furman in front of 21,593 fans at Paulson Stadium.

Revere, a senior, ran for 77 yards and threw for 53 more in helping the Eagles bounce back from a 19-16 loss to un-ranked East Tennessee State. The defeat snapped a six-game season winning streak by Furman and avenged the Eagles' 45-10 loss to the Paladins last year in Greenville.

Revere's 1-yard touchdown run with 10:33 to go in the game gave Georgia Southern a 17-10 lead, and the Eagles later got a 42-yard field goal from Scott Shelton with 2:28 left to make it 20-10.

Georgia Southern's go-ahead touchdown was set by a fumble recovery by the Eagles' Corey Middlebrooks at the Georgia Southern 23-yard line on the first play of the fourth quarter. Furman had driven 57 yards in eight plays and appeared to be in position to take command of the game, but Middlebrooks pounced on a bad exchange between quarterback Billy Napier and fullback Corey Tant. From there, Georgia Southern moved 77 yards in nine plays for Revere's decisive score.

After an exchange of possessions, Furman took over at the Georgia Southern 49 with 7:34 left following a short Eagle punt. After Napier connected with James Thomas for 12 yards and a first down to the Georgia Southern 30, the Paladins failed on three successive pass plays before a tipped Napier fourth down pass was intercepted by linebacker Derrick Butler. From there the Eagles moved 48 yards in seven plays for Shelton's 42-yard field goal, which effectively sealed the victory.

Louis Ivory, the reigning Walter Payton Award winner, ran 23 times for 122 yards and a touchdown while Georgia Southern's Adrian Peterson recorded 24 carries for 158 yards. Ivory's touchdown run, which covered 23 yards on a draw play with less than a minute left in the first half, tied the game at 7-7.

Furman broke the 7-7 deadlock by taking the second half kickoff and moving 71 yards in 10 plays for a Danny Marshall 30-yard field goal.

The Eagles, however, came back to knot the game at 10-10 with a 35-yard field goal by Shelton with 4:13 left in the third quarter, capping a 14-play, 57-yard possession.

Georgia Southern nosed out Furman 329-328 in total offense, and the Eagles outrushed the Paladins 276-132.

Furman 45, Wofford 14

November 10, 2001

Paladin Stadium Attendance: 10,534

GREENVILLE -- Louis Ivory rushed for 198 yards and a career high four touchdowns to lead NCAA I-AA nationally fifth-ranked Furman to a 45-14 win over visiting Wofford.

Ivory scored on runs covering 13, 7, 17, and 8 yards and topped the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the third consecutive season (1,158 yards), tying a school mark set by Stanford Jennings from 1981-83. Ivory also racked up the 29th 100-yard rushing performance of his career and set a new school record for rushing touchdowns with 50, breaking the old mark of 48 set by Carl Tremble from 1989-92.

The win was the 13th straight home conference victory by Furman (7-2, 6-1 SoCon) and sixth triumph in the last seven meetings with Wofford (3-6, 2-4 SoCon), which last won in Greenville in 1970.

Furman outgained Wofford 434-264.

The Paladins seized control on the contest early, scoring on its first possession by moving 92 yards in 10 plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 13-yard run by Ivory at the 8:05 mark of the first quarter.

Furman added three more scores on Ivory touchdown runs of 7 and 17 yards and on an 18-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Billy Napier to James Thomas to take a 28-0 second quarter lead.

After Wofford made it 28-7, the Paladins responded by moving 56 yards in 10 plays for a 39-yard Danny Marshall field goal on the final play of the half for a 31-7 advantage.

Furman vanquished any Wofford comeback when Brian Bratton took the second half kickoff and raced 100 yards for a touchdown to stretch the lead to 38-7. The kickoff return was Bratton's third of the season and the fourth by the Paladins this year.

Despite throwing two interceptions, Furman quarterback Billy Napier completed 14-of-16 passes for 174 yards and a touchdown. His favorite target was junior wide receiver James Thomas, who tallied a career high seven receptions for another career high 101 yards and a score.

Linebacker Sterling Frierson led all Paladin defenders with eight tackles while defensive end Mike Killian had seven tackles and a fumble recovery, which he returned 18 yards to set up a score. Will Bouton, the league's reigning defensive player-of-the-year, tallied six tackles and his first interception of the season, which he returned 10 yards from the end zone.

GAME 10

Furman 42, Chattanooga 10

November 17, 2001

Finley Stadium Attendance: 6,336

CHATTANOOGA, TENN. -- Billy Napier passed for a career high 218 yards and accounted for four touchdowns and Furman's defense converted a pair of second half turnovers into scores to lead the NCAA I-AA fourthranked Paladins to a 42-10 win over Chattanooga and 2001 Southern Conference championship.

Furman's title, its second in three years, is the program's 11th overall the most by any school in the conference's 80-year football history.

Napier completed 16-of-23 passes and connected on strikes of 19,6, and 16 yards while also scoring on a 1-yard run to pace Furman to a season high 468 yards offense. Two of Napier's strikes went to flanker Bear Rinehart, and the other covered 16 yards to tight end Trent Sansbury, who caught a career high seven passes for 77 yards.

Tailback Louis Ivory headlined the ground attack with 158 yards and touchdown and, in the process, recorded the 30th 100-yard game of his career.

A 48-yard return by Brian Bratton, the nation's leading kickoff return specialist, on the game's first play set up a 27-yard touchdown run by Ivory at the 13:57 mark that put the Paladins ahead 7-0.

After Chattanooga tied the game, the Paladins regained the lead on a 30-yard Danny Marshall field goal early in the second quarter.

Less than a minute later Furman struck again following a 28-yard interception return to the UTC 19 by free safety Josh Cooper. On the next play Napier hit Rinehart in the corner of the end zone to give the Paladins a 16-7 advantage with 13:43 left in the first half.

Chattanooga hung tough in the third quarter and sliced Furman's lead to 16-10 with a 30-yard Andy Ladenbauche field goal, but the Paladins took control with a 26-point fourth period.

A spectacular, diving 6-yard touchdown reception by Rinehart at the 14:13 juncture extended Furman's lead to 22-10, and less than two minutes later a 13-yard interception return by linebacker John Thrift led to the Paladins' next tally on a 16-yard strike from Napier to Sansbury that made it 28-10.

The Paladin onslaught continued a little more than a minute later when cornerback Richie Jackson scooped up a fumble by the Mocs' Joey Peters and raced 31 yards for another score at the 11:30 mark, giving Furman a 35-10 advantage. Napier's 1-yard touchdown plunge with 4:07 left capped the Paladins' fourth-quarter outburst.

Cooper headlined Furman's defensive effort with 10 tackles, two interceptions, two pass deflections, and a caused fumble.

Furman 47, Presbyterian 28

November 24, 2001

Paladin Stadium Attendance: 7,241

GREENVILLE -- Louis Ivory rushed for 176 yards and four touchdowns to lead the NCAA I-AA fourth-ranked Furman Paladins to a 47-28 win over Presbyterian in the regular season finale for both teams.

Ivory, the reigning Walter Payton Award honoree as the top offensive player in NCAA I-AA, scored on touchdown runs of 15, 1, 3, and 2 yards and claimed his second consecutive Southern Conference rushing title with 1,492 yards and a school season record 19 touchdowns. He also registered the 31st 100-yard rushing game of his career.

Presbyterian was paced by senior quarterback Todd Cunningham, who completed 33-of-48 passes for 346 yards and four touchdowns to finish his career as the second all-time leading passer in NCAA Division II history with 10,937 yards and 111 touchdowns.

Presbyterian used all four Cunningham touchdown passes in the first half, including a pair of strikes to senior wide receiver D.J. Humphries covering 14 and 13 yards, to take a 28-27 lead into halftime.

Furman, however, regained the advantage when Ivory scored on a 3yard run on the Paladins' first possession of the second half to make it 33-

The Paladins' Cedrick Ritter then intercepted Cunningham at the Furman 36 on Presbyterian's next possession, and the Paladins responded by moving 64 yards in 13 plays for Ivory's fourth touchdown of the contest, which came on a 2-yard run with 2:55 left in the third quarter to give the Paladins a 40-28 advantage.

Furman closed out the scoring with an Al Means 4-yard run with 10:21 left in the game.

Furman rolled up a 494-350 advantage in total offense and shut out Presbyterian in the second half, limiting the Blue Hose to only 91 total yards over the final two quarters. PC only netted four rushing yards in the game on 10 attempts.

Billy Napier paced Furman's passing attack, completing 13-of-23 passes for 181 yards and a touchdown.

GAME 12

Furman 24, Western Kentucky 20

December I, 2001 (NCAA I-AA Playoffs)

Attendance: 6,143

GREENVILLE -- Al Means' 19-yard touchdown run with 3:07 left in the game lifted Furman to a 24-20 win over Western Kentucky in NCAA I-AA first round playoff action at Paladin Stadium.

Means' decisive score came after Josh Cooper recovered a fumble by Western Kentucky's Curtis Hamilton at the Hilltoppers' 42-yard line. Following four consecutive runs by Louis Ivory that moved Furman to the 19, Means took a handoff up the middle for the game winning score.

The victory snapped the Paladins' string of two straight opening round playoff losses and marked the program's biggest comeback since 1996 when Furman rallied from a 21-7 deficit to beat Northern Arizona, 42-31.

Furman committed four turnovers, but the Paladins benefited from three Hilltopper miscues, including two fumbles that led directly to scores. The Paladins totaled 327 yards against a Western Kentucky defense that ranked second nationally in scoring and rushing defense. The Hilltoppers, meanwhile, accumulated only 243 total yards, including a mere 76 in the second half. Western Kentucky ranked fourth nationally in rushing offense but managed only 186 versus the Paladins.

Furman fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter following a 3-yard touchdown run by Jason Johnson and 8-yard touchdown pass from Johnson to DeWayne Gallishaw.

A 21-yard touchdown pass from Napier to Isaac West on the first play of the second quarter cut the lead in half, but the Hilltoppers later responded when Peter Martinez kicked a career long 51-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to make it a 17-7 game.

After Martinez connected on a 33-yard field goal at the 6:31 mark of the third quarter to put the Hilltopper's ahead 20-7, Furman rallied, using a 47-yard pass from Napier to tight end Trent Sansbury to the Western Kentucky 16-yard line. Two plays later fullback Eric Emerson bulled over from four yards out with 0:52 left in the third quarter to make it 20-14.

From that point, Furman's defense stepped up, forcing a pair of fumbles to fuel the comeback. A Will Bouton recovery at the Hilltopper 38 led to a Danny Marshall 21-yard field goal that made it 20-17. Later, after Bobby Sippio intercepted a Napier pass at the Hilltopper 29, the Paladin defense came up big again when Cooper pounced on a fumble at the Hilltopper 45, setting up Means' game winning touchdown run.

Furman was paced offensively by Ivory, who ran for 170 yards on 33 carries before exiting the game with a sprained knee on the game winning touchdown drive. Bouton, meanwhile, led a strong Paladin defensive effort with 13 tackles, two tackles-for-loss, and a fumble recovery.

Furman 34, Lehigh 17

December 8, 2001 (NCAA I-AA Playoffs)

Attendance: 10,189

GREENVILLE -- Toreico O'Neal rushed for 128 yards and a pair of touchdowns and Furman' defense racked up a season high nine sacks to lead the Paladins to a 34-17 win over the Lehigh Mountain Hawks in NCAA I-AA quarterfinal football action in front of 10,189 fans at Paladin Stadium.

O'Neal's performance highlighted a strong Furman rushing attack that was minus All-America tailback Louis Ivory, who did not play due to a sprained knee sustained in the Paladins' win over Western Kentucky. In addition to O'Neal, Furman got 105 and 66 yards, respectively, from tailbacks Hindley Brigham and Lamar Rembert on the way to 332 rushing yards.

As much as Furman's offensive line set the stage for the Paladins' strong ground attack, the Paladin defense stepped up with another solid playoff game performance by holding the Mountain Hawks to only 305 total yards. Lehigh was hounded by Paladin senior linebacker Will Bouton, who totaled II tackles, including six-for-loss, a career high four sacks, and a forced fumble. Bouton's dominating play helped the Paladins to their nine quarterback sacks, just one shy of the school single game record.

Furman took an early 3-0 lead on a 22-yard Danny Marshall field goal at the 8:23 mark of the first quarter.

After Lehigh went up 7-3 on a 1-yard touchdown run by Justin Barrasso, Furman used a 65-yard kickoff return by the nation's leading return specialist, Brian Bratton, to set up its next score, which came on the next play when O'Neal took an option pitch 35 yards to make it 10-7.

Furman's defense set up the Paladins' next score when Bouton forced a fumble by Lehigh quarterback Brant Hall, which was recovered by Sterling Frierson at the Furman 35. Seven plays later, on a third and 16 play at the Lehigh 49, Paladin quarterback Billy Napier scrambled away from pressure and connected with wide receiver Bear Rinehart behind the Mountain Hawk secondary for a 49-yard touchdown to make it 17-7.

Just before intermission the Paladins stretched their advantage to 24-7 on a 2-yard run by fullback Eric Emerson to cap a 9-play, 62-yard drive.

Brian Kelley booted a 29-yard field goal in the third quarter to narrow the Paladin advantage to 24-10, but Lehigh's comeback when the Paladins, using a 48-yard run by Brigham, responded with Marshall's second field goal of the contest, a 27-yard effort on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Furman later made it 34-10 after Will Bouton sacked Lehigh quarterback Brant Hall at the Mountain Hawk 41. Three handoffs to O'Neal got the Paladins into the end zone, with the scoring run covering 10 yards.

GAME 14

Furman 24, Georgia Southern 17

December 15, 2001 (NCAA I-AA Playoffs)

Paulson Stadium Attendance: 11,827

STATESBORO, GA. -- Georgia Southern's Paulson Stadium is known to the GSU faithful as "Our House", but the Furman Paladins served an eviction notice by bouncing the Eagles 24-17 to advance to the NCAA I-AA championship game against Montana.

Winners of 39 straight games at Paulson and 27-0 in home playoff contests over the years, Georgia Southern saw its impressive runs end when Furman converted a pair of early third quarter fumbles into 10 points, helping to erase a 17-7 halftime deficit on the way to the win.

Trailing 7-3, slotback Mark Myers put the Eagles ahead 10-7 when he took an option pitch from quarterback J.R. Revere and raced 51 yards for a score with 3:22 left. Then, after forcing a punt, Georgia Southern used a 58-yard pass from Revere to Derrick Owens to the quickly cover 84 yards for its second touchdown of the game, which came on II-yard run by Revere with only 20 seconds left before intermission.

Furman's fortunes, however, changed quickly in the third quarter.

On the second half kickoff, the Eagles' Justin Wright botched the reception, and Cam Newton picked up the ball and returned it to the Eagle 18. From there Furman drove to the 2 before settling for a Danny Marshall 19-yard field goal that cut the Georgia Southern lead to 17-10.

On the Eagles' next play from scrimmage, Furman's Eddie Overdyke pounced on a Zzream Walden fumble at the Georgia Southern 21, and one play later quarterback Billy Napier connected with flanker Bear Rinehart on a 21-yard touchdown strike to knot the game at 17-17.

After yielding 224 yards in the first half, Furman's defense tightened the screws, recording a shutout and limiting the Eagles to only 55 yards and 20 plays over the final two quarters.

Furman' offense, meanwhile, established control up front to produce the game winning points, putting together a 13-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a 1-yard touchdown plunge by fullback Eric Emerson with

From that point, Furman's defense, led by linebacker Will Bouton's 10 tackles, three tackles-for-loss, and sack, slammed the door, forcing a punt and and an interception on the Eagles' last two possesions.

Furman outgained Georgia Southern 345-279 and outrushed the Eagles 186-184. Playing in the last game of his collegiate career, Georgia Southern's Adrian Peterson, the Southern Conference's all-time leading rusher, was held to a career low 68 yards on 18 carries.

Napier tied David Henderson's school record for consecutive completions in a game by going 12-for-12 for 159 yards and a touchdown. His favorite target was Rinehart, who caught five passes for 82 yards.

1988 NCAA I-AA National Championship

FURMAN 17, GEORGIA SOUTHERN 12 December 17, 1988, Milton Holt Arena, Attendance: 9,714

POCATELLO, IDAHO - Nowhere in the preseason Top 20 and picked to finish fourth in the Southern Conference, the Furman Paladins capped the greatest season in school football history by downing Georgia Southern, 17-12, on national television to win the 1988 NCAA I-AA national championship.

With memories of the 44-42 loss to the Eagles in the 1985 championship game on the minds of many, Furman, and in particular the Paladin defense, saw to it that there would be no miracle comeback for Georgia Southern this time around. An interception by Jeff Blankenship in the game's final seconds made sure of it, as did the Paladins' control of the line of scrimmage, as Furman effectively shut down one of the nation's leading ground games, limiting Georgia Southern to just 134 yards rushing and 198 total yards.

Despite being outclassed on both sides of the football, the Eagles hung tough with superior special teams play, which nearly delivered to Georgia Southern a third national championship in four years.

Furman went to the air with success on the game's first play. Disguising an option to the right side, Paladin quarterback Frankie DeBusk rolled back at the last second and hit a wide open Donald Lipscomb for a 48-yard gain to the Eagle 32 Three players later, however, the Paladins turned it over when tailback John Bagwell fumbled while attempting a simple shift of the football in his arms.

Starting at its 27, Georgia Southern moved 36 yards in nine plays to the Furman 37. From there the Eagles got on the board first when David Cool split the uprights from 55 yards out to put Georgia Southern ahead 3-0 with 7:13 to go in the first quarter.

On its second possession, Furman flexed its offensive muscle with strong running and timely passing en route to its first score. Moving 88 yards in 13 plays, the Paladins proved they could handle the Eagles up front. A 19-yard strike from Frankie DeBusk to tight end Greg Key and Glen Connally's PAT gave the Paladins a 7-3 lead with 0:54 to go in the opening period

Early in the second quarter the Paladins failed to convert on two excellent scoring opportunities. Following a Jeff Blankenship interception at the Georgia Southern 13. Furman turned to tailback Bobby Daugherty, who promptly ripped 11 yards out of the heart of Southern's defense. The Paladins would get no closer, however, as Furman lost 11 yards on the next two plays and then suffered its second turnover when Frankie DeBusk's pass was picked off in the end zone by the Eagles' Kevin Whitley

Thanks to solid defensive work, including a tackle by Dean Williams for a loss of seven yards and a short Eagle punt, Furman opened its next drive at the Georgia Southern 42. Using an 8-yard run by Dwight Sterling and a 22-yard burst by Daugherty, the Paladins advanced to the Eagle 9, but Georgia Southern's defense again stiffened and turned the Paladins away when the Eagles' Mark Giles blocked Glen Connally's 27-yard field goal attempt.

After Georgia Southern missed a 48-yard field goal try, Furman was able to stretch its lead to 10-3 with a 36-yard field goal by Glen Connally with barely over a minute remaining in the first half.

There were only three possessions in the third stanza and two of them netted points. On its first series of the second half, Georgia Southern used 16 plays to move just 29 yards, but that was good enough for placekicker David Cool, who knocked home his second field goal of the contest, this time from 48 yards out to cut Furman's lead to 10-6 at the 5:07 juncture.

Furman turned the tables on Georgia Southern in 1988 with a 17-12 win over the Eagles to claim the NCAA I-AA national championship.

Furman answered the Eagle score by marching 80 yards behind the running of fullback Dwight Sterling and tailback John Bagwell. A 24-yard run by Sterling on the drive's second play carried the Paladins to their 49. From there Furman turned primarily to Bagwell, who on three carries netted 31 yards. From the Eagle 8, the Paladins called Sterling's number twice, and on his second attempt, behind a solid block from center Steve Duggan, he scored on a 5-yard dive up the middle. The PAT with 0:38 to go in the quarter increased Furman's lead to 17-6.

What appeared to be a safe lead with the nation's best defense was quickly placed in jeopardy early in the fourth quarter when the Eagles' Mark Giles blocked a Bruce Leicht punt and returned it 30 yards for a touchdown with 12:24 to go. Georgia Southern's critical two-point conversion pass failed, but Furman's lead was only 17-12.

With momentum, Georgia Southern stuffed Furman on its next two possessions and took over at the Paladin 40 with 7:14 to go following a short punt. Moving in for what looked like the go-ahead score, the Eagles, who in 1985 made all the key plays down the stretch in a win over Furman, committed a huge mistake when quarterback Raymond Gross failed to tuck the ball away on an option keeper. Hit by defensive end Kelly Fletcher, Gross watched the ball squirt loose and Furman's Wade Sexton recover it at the 2-

Its life again spared by its defense, Furman turned to its offense to work out the hole. In two plays the Paladin front cleared the way for fullback Billy Stockdale, who reeled off runs of 11 and 17 yards to Furman 30. From the 38, Bruce Leicht came through with his biggest punt of the game, a 48-yarder to the turned to the air, but there to stop him was a Furman defense that smelled victory. After an exchange of possessions, the Eagles got one last chance, but All-America linebacker Jeff Blankenship slammed the door by stepping in front of a Raymond Gross pass at the Eagle 33 to preserve the win and give Furman its first national championship.

Notes: Freshman nose guard Allen Edwards was brilliant in the second start of his career, recording five tackles and a hit-for-loss against two-time Eagle All-America Dennis Franklin. Approximately 800 Furman fans accompanied the team on the over 2,000-mile trip to Pocatello. The national championship was the first by a Southern Conference team. On Jan. 16, 1989, Greenville honored the national championship Paladins with a parade in downtown Greenville that was attended by approximately 20,000 people, including Governor Carroll Campbell, former governor Richard Riley, and United States Senator Strom Thurmond. On Feb. 15, 1989, Furman's national championship team was honored by a joint session of the South Carolina General Assembly and by visiting President George Bush.
